SOCIAL ACTIVITY

Miss Mildred Presby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henry Presby and Mr. Nathan Corwith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Corwith of this city, were married last Monday evening in Montclair, N. J. The wedding, which was one of the most brilliant social events of the year, took place at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Montclair, with Bishop Coajutor Stearly and the Rev. Luke M. White, rector, officiating. Yellow chrysanthemums, oak leaves, smilax, palms and ferns were massed about the chancel. The Mildred Presby chrysanthemums, a new flower grown in Mr. Presby's green house and named for his daughter in honor of her marriage, were carried by the bridesmaids and were everywhere about the beautiful home of the bride's parents, for the reception. The bride's gown was of ivory charmeuse and rose point lace with a court train and veil of rose point lace and tulle, held with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried sweetheart roses showered with lilies of the valley. Betsy Presby, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a quaint gown of rose colored taffeta and carried a round bouquet of old fashioned flowers in a silver lace frill. The four bridesmaids were Mrs. Cyril Tiers Staudinger, Mrs. Charles Farnsworth, Anne Ticheon of Montclair and Margaret Merryweather of Highland Park. They were gowned alike in French blue chiffon velvet in charming contrast to the pink and lavender of their bouquets. Melville Cobb, of this city, was best man, and the ushers were Samuel Bingham, of this city, Duncan Clinch, Chicago, Cyril Tiers Staudinger, Montclair and William Morgan of New York city. Mr. and Mrs. Corwith will make their home at 727 Hinman ave., Evanston.
