NUMBER 42

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1922

Dear People of Highland Park GREETINGS:

If we cannot sell Christmas Gifts such as books, stationery, cigars, pipes, games, toys, ash trays, ink wells, fountain pens, Eversharp pencils, box candy, diaries or address books, of all of which we have a carefully selected stock, let us at least supply you with the seals, labels, twine, cord, tissue, and inclosure cards to use with the presents.

Let me assure you this end of the game will be much appreciated. We have a lot of these materials and would much rather have the money for them (or we will charge if you wish) than have this stock on our shelves.

By the way, we specialize in greeting cards and the wide range of styles surely will please you.

We were a little late with our Christmas napkins and decorative crepe this year, but our stock is now in and we will be very pleased to take care of your demands.

Very truly yours,

ALBERT LARSON
Stationer
