

Fleece-Lined Pockets

How can you be sure that the promoter, who often comes into this community, is not lining his own pockets?

Your banker is in a position to know what investments are safe. His advices may be worth everything to you.

It will pay you to consult an officer of this bank before investing.

FIREMEN'S PARTY IS MUCH ENJOYED

Families, Friends Entertained at Headquarters Saturday Evening

Saturday evening a delightful party for the firemen and their families and friends was held in their headquarters on the second floor of the fire station. Bunco and dancing were enjoyed and there was a grab bag for the children, which created much amusement. Prizes in bunco were won by Mrs. Raymond Otsel and Mrs. Andrew Peterson. The affair was much enjoyed by the large number present.

A Good Approach

As in golf, so in business, the good results of long, vigorous field shots may be lost by a poor approach.

Your proposition has merit. You believe in it. An earnest, straightforward telephone talk will put it through.

It is not always necessary, and sometimes it is not good policy, to disturb a busy man of affairs by a visit in person. But if you go directly to the heart of the matter in a brief talk over the Long Distance telephone you can get favorable attention and, more likely than not, a favorable decision.

Get acquainted with the money and time saving features of our "station-to-station" service. It is explained in the current issue of the Alphabetical Telephone Directory.

BRILLIANT LECTURE AT WOMAN'S CLUB

One of the most interesting, profitable and pleasing features of the season's program of notable events on the Highland Park Woman's club calendar was the lecture delivered before the club last Tuesday afternoon by R. E. P. Kline, on the subject, "How Shall the People Know?"

Mr. Kline, who is one of the popular platform speakers of the present day, was one of the most interesting speakers on the club's program last year, and the members looked forward with keen expectation of a rare treat at the Tuesday afternoon meeting. They were not disappointed. Mr. Kline's topic was timely and handled with consummate skill evidencing deep study of the subject matter, and the eloquence and charm with which the lecture was delivered, the brilliance of wit enlivened it, and the appropriateness of the anecdotes by which it was illuminated won the hearty commendation of all who were privileged to hear it.
