LOVE IN THE DARK

Starring VIOLA DANA

Fairly Tingles with thrills. Story by John A. Morosco; scenario by J. G. Hawks; a Harry Beaumont production.

Viola Dana Is Hostess to Orphans

Fifteen little Los Angeles Orphans were made happy for several days recently thru the hospitality of Viola Dana. The tiny Metro star played hostess to the children while they took part in her newest production, "Love in the Dark."

Several Scenes of the pictures are laid in an orphan asylum, for which the interior of an orphan home was constructed. Harry Beaumont, who directed the production, visited several of the Los Angeles orphanages seeking suitable types for his picture. Finally he selected fifteen children ranging in age from a few months to twelve years whom he considered most suitable.

John Morosco wrote the story of "Love in the Dark" which J. G. Hawks prepared for the screen. John Arnold was cameraman.

Johnny Hines' latest

SURE FIRE FLINT

Johnny Hines, America's popular juvenile screen comedian, is booked for an engagement at the De Luxe Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. This time Johnny comes with a new feature comedy under the title of "Sure Fire Flint," taken from a story by Gerald C. Duffy, known for his stories filled with pep and dash. Those who remember Johnny in "Burn 'em Up Barnes" will welcome him in his latest photo play. In "Sure Fire Flint" Johnny will keep everyone in high spirits; he is always doing things that will bring a thousand laughs. This picture is filled with a thrill, especially the one where he races his automobile across a railway crossing only to have it demolished by the dashing express train. Also the scene taken from the trenches, where he holds up a card and has it punctured by a rifle ball from an alert Heinie sharp-shooter, not omitting the big cabaret shots, where Johnny proves himself a regular Vernon Castle. There are many other scenes that will bring forth true hearty laughter. Mr. Hines is surrounded by a cast of well known people, including Doris Kenyon, Effie Shannon, Robert Edeson, Edmund Breeze, J. Barney Sherry, Chas. Gerrard and others. The piece was directed by Dell Henderson and Billy Bitzer, Cameraman for Griffiths, took the scenes. All sets were designed by Charles O. Sessel.

CLARENCE

with Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McAvoy

Wallace Reid in the Paramount Picture "CLARENCE" A William de Mille Production

A Paramount Comedy Drama with three recognized and popular stars, is a feature exhibitors are not often privileged to present to their patrons. And more than that, it's clean as a hound's tooth, thoroughly enjoyable and essentially a delightful family picture which even the most censorious censor will cordially indorse. That picture is "Clarence," a Booth Tarkington story and the stars are Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McAvoy. It is a light comedy of the American Home.

THE PRIDE OF PALOMAR

Forrest Stanley in the Paramount Picture "The Pride of Palomar" A Cosmopolitan Production

"The Pride of Palomar" Has Theme of General Interest

Here's a thrilling motion picture story! A young American returns from the war expecting to be welcomed to the family ranch in California only to find that it has fallen into unscrupulous hands. What would you have done in his place? What did he do? Well, he had Irish blood in him, so you can undoubtedly imagine that he made things mighty interesting for those who opposed him. Perhaps you've read of it. You have if you've read "The Pride of Palomar," Peter B. Kyne's great story, which appeared serially in the Cosmopolitan magazine. Now it has been adapted to the screen by the Cosmopolitan production for Paramount. Forrest Stanley and Marjorie Daw are the featured players in this big production.

It is easy enough to solve the problems of the times if you don't consider what would become of the tax rate. Some folks seem to think that all they have to do to succeed in business is to borrow some money.

Close Friday
The A. B. C. entries close Friday. It will be the worlds greatest bowling classic, with an entry around 1500 teams, the tournament alleys will be laid in the big auditorium in Milwaukee city. It is expected about two local teams will be entered, the big Illinois state meet will come along in April, and several local teams will show in the classic.

The match play is on and practically every night will see pin battles at the Majestic. Friday Bob Greenslade and Tom Clark will lock horns with the Rudolph-Orl combination. Saturday will see the strong Jack Olsen's team of Chicago here for a tilt with the Majestics, while early in the evening the Lake Forest Gas Office will roll the Highland Park office. Sunday will see Rudolph-Orl tackle a Waukegan pair in Moore and Sybrandy, of the city in the first half of a ten game match.

Tuesday Night
Tuesday evening the Majestic alleys were taken over by the Central Electric company of Chicago, who lined up 25 strong on the alleys, they carried the score sheets and all right with them, so we cannot give a record of the great session, but judging from the way they brought down the house time, after time, during the evening, we would say the result must have been satisfactory.

Wins First
John Picchetti won first prize in last weeks singles with a total of 640, with games of 222,190, 228. Ori was next with 636, scores 199, 205, 232.

The Pest
Sung to the "you-know-the-tune"
My sweetie has a kid brother,
The darnest darn pest you can find.
And if it wasn't for his mother,
An early grave he would find.
One night the lights went out in the parlor,
A quarter I slipped to the kid.
And downstairs he went
To the gas meter bent,
And slipped in the quarter, he did.
