A Kiwanis club conference is to be held at Waukegan April 2, according to Coral T. Heydecker, secretary of the Waukegan organization. Probably 25 clubs of the district will be represented at the meet, bringing probably 150 people to Waukegan for the program.

Mrs. Harry Folts, president of the Lake County League of Women Voters is the first woman to become a candidate for city commissioner in the city of Waukegan.

Charging that she was falsely accused and arrested and that she was handled roughly by the Zion police, Mrs. M. W. Austin, former guest at the Zion Home, today filed the declaration in a $10,000 damage suit in the Circuit Court against Chief of Police Theo R. Becker, Overseer Voliva, Anton Darms and Ernest Harwood.

Wilbur Glen Voliva through his general manager, W. Hurd Clendinen, last week handed to the Chicago Title and Trust company a check for $45,407—another annual payment on the Zion Estate, which he purchased March 1, 1911, for $950,000.

The biggest cash deal in realty that has been made in Lake County recently was consummated last week when the Clay farm of 250 acres on what is known as Golf road was sold by John Clay to Mr. Pearlman, a member of the Lake County Realty company. The deal, together with improvements that are to be made in subdivision of the property represents $350,000.

Mrs. Minnie Jane Houghteling, aged 74 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Kline-smith, of 14 Elmwood avenue, Waukegan, last week, after a weeks illness of pneumonia.

Henry Hentze, 48 years old, held by the Waukegan police as a suspect, made an unsuccessful effort to commit suicide by hanging in the city jail last week. He looped his belt about his neck, climbed upon his bunk, attached the other end of the strap to the top of his cell, and then stepped off.

Harry Davis, desk secretary at the Waukegan Y. M. C. A. for several years, has gone to Rockford, where he will engage in the insurance business.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The board of directors of Community Service held a meeting at the Center Monday evening. The work for the past month shows a steady gain in number of activities and people reached. Plans for the summer playground work was discussed, and it is hoped to give the children of Highland Park an educational program under trained leadership. Mr. Harry Allen, the District Representative of Community Service and Playground and Recreation association of America, attended this meeting and told of the work being done by other communities. The board reported progress on the drive for funds, although a great many people have not yet been reached every one will be asked to contribute to this work, as the program will have to be regulated to the amount subscribed.

Several one act plays are now in rehearsal for use at the Lyceum Course and one for the Y. P. S. of the Presbyterian church. If you are interested in dramatics, or would be interested in any form of entertaining you should file your name at Center, as the service bureau has received several calls lately for this kind of talent.

The Center is being used every night in the week now by some organized group, some evenings two or more meetings are being held simultaneously. You are invited to have your committee meetings here at any time.

The few warm days greatly increased the calls for men and women in the employment bureau, but we have been able to fill every call so far with dispatch.

Home Play Feature
During the past few years the tendency has been to seek the major portion of recreation and play life away from home. So much so, in fact that the mothers and fathers have forgotten all of the old games and stunts that used to make the home circle, and the evenings at home so enjoyable. Mr. Walkup of Community Service has compiled a number of the old games and stunts together with some new ones and will give you in Highland Park Press each week a few stunts or games that can be played in the home, games that will be played by mother and father with as much interest as the children. Watch next weeks Press for the first installment—get out your shears and save them all for future reference.

CADILLAC SERVICE

THE OWNER of a Type 59 Cadillac came in one day last week to get new front end drive chains. He had been told by an outside service station that they were necessary.

The mechanic who advised him evidently was not only unaware of the simple adjustment provided for these chains, but did not even know how to remove them properly and consequently damaged them beyond repair.

Incidents of this nature occur almost daily—continuous evidence of the loss Cadillac owners experience by having work done in shops not equipped or manned to give intelligent, efficient service.

Cadillac Official Service Stations are maintained to protect the Cadillac owner's interests—to assure him of the greatest satisfaction that can be derived from the performance of a fine motor car.
