HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS NEXT WEDNESDAY

Meeting to Be Held in Vestry of Trinity Church; Will Serve Luncheon

The next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Highland Park hospital will take place Wednesday, March 21st in the vestry rooms of Trinity Episcopal church. Luncheon will be served and a large attendance is desired.

At the last meeting in February a great deal was accomplished by the fifty ladies present on that day. Miss Williams the head nurse of the hospital read a report of the plans for the work to be done which is now so very urgent. Curtains, etc., for the new maternity ward will be made at the sewing meetings in the near future.

Mrs. Edward Smith the treasurer, read a report, and the following contributions to the Memorial Flower Fund were received: Mrs. A. E. Bradley in memory of Colonel Bradley and his work as surgeon in the United States army; Mrs. Marshall E. Sampson sent gifts in memory of Mrs. Franklin B. Hussey, Mrs. O. H. Morgan, Mr. John Marshall and Mr. Frank McMullin; Miss Olive Williams sent a contribution in memory of Mr. C. T. Boynton as did Mr. and Mrs. R. T. R. Hastings and Mr. Walter H. Baldwin. The latter also sent a gift in memory of Mrs. Arthur J. Mason, and of Mrs. O. H. Morgan.

Members of afflicted families have frequently said, that the Memorial Flower Fund acknowledgements bring more lasting satisfaction and comfort than do flowers. They realize that money heretofore spent for sentimental tributes to the dead is used to relieve distress among the living.

It is gratifying to note that our example has influenced other communities to start like funds. Mrs. Martin Insull writes from St. Augustine, Fla., stating that the Hager hospital there, wishes to start funds. When persons understanding that the living, both of the bereaved family and of the needy and sick are best comforted by the flower fund this method will be used more and more.

How much better is it to scatter flowers of help before those in distress or ill than to decorate graves with blossoms that endure but a few fleeting hours. Please help, and spread the gospel of the Memorial and the Happy Day Fund. All contributions with directions as to acknowledgements should be sent to Miss Susie Cahn, The Moraine, special fund secretary.

TELEPHONE AND LIGHT WIRES HIT BY STORM

Much Damage Done by Gale and Snow Sunday Night; Worse in West

Considerable damage was done by the high wind and heavy snow storm which visited this section of the state Sunday night. In Highland Park the damage was not serious, but telephone lines were put out of commission, and electric lines were down in some places suspending service in certain quarters until late Monday forenoon. In Lake Forest the suspension was for a longer time in some parts of town. Further west, between Deerfield and Waukegan on Telegraph road many poles were down, and north of Waukegan it was reported more than 200 were levelled and a large force of men was employed all week making repairs.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM GIVEN AT OSSOLI CLUB

Mr. Robt. Klees and Miss Lucy Pearson Spoke on Work at Tuesday's Meet

The meeting of the Ossoli club on Tuesday, March 18th, will stand out as a red letter day in the club's programs for the year. It was in charge of the Americanization committee, Mrs. C. C. Hopkins, chairman, and the club rooms were gay with flags in honor of the afternoon.

Before the regular program, Miss Annie Cobb gave a resume of the chief world events during the past month; a most interesting survey of the foreign and domestic situations and touched upon recent achievements in science and invention.

Mr. Walkup, director of Highland Park Community center, spoke of the work accomplished among our foreign population—said there were three classes and told of the teaching, their eagerness to learn and their rapid progress.

Mr. Robert Klees, director of the Union League Boys club has given his time since leaving college ten years ago to work among boys—chiefly delinquent boys and boys of the street without home influence and is training them to become good citizens.

Mr. Klees was asked to bring some of his boys to Highland Park to show what they had accomplished in music. Mr. Britton Budd will send them on a special car and notice will be given later of their performance which will be given some time in April.

HIGHLAND PARKERS BENEFIT BY WILL

Last Testament of Orson Smith Leaves Bequests to Local Relatives

A five-year-old girl who had been named for his wife was the chief beneficiary in the will of Orson Smith, chairman of the advisory committee of the Merchants Loan & Trust Company, filed for probate at Waukegan. It disposed of $250,000.

Anna Rice Donovan, of 1616 Farragut street, Washington, D. C., is the girl. She is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Smith's niece and was given $35,000, of which $10,000 is to be paid her at once and the remainder when the estate is closed.

Her mother, Mrs. Hester Nolan Donovan, was given $5,000. Lake county folks also benefited by the will, the bequests being made to Highland Parkers.

Edward A. Smith, nephew, Highland Park, $2,000; Mrs. Lora S. Cowan, niece, Highland Park, $2,000, and Mrs. Bessie S. Bullard, niece, $2,000. Louis Crow, nephew, 557 Longwood avenue, Highland Park, was given $5,000.

MRS. I. K. PETERSON DIED LAST FRIDAY

Aged Woman Had Numerous Relatives; Funeral Held on Monday Afternoon

Mrs. Inga Katherine Peterson died Friday evening, March 9, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Arcuse, Deerfield road. Death followed a prolonged illness. She was born Nov. 22, 1846, in Norway, and came to this country in 1883.

Surviving relatives are two sons and five daughters—John Peterson, Flasher N. D.; Albert Peterson, Chicago; Mrs. Anna Hansen, Racine, Wis.; Mrs. May Arcuse, Highland Park; Mrs. Hannah Johnson, Chicago; Mrs. Jennie Nickles, Milwaukee; Mrs. Agnes Blank, Highland Park, and 83 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, at the home, and burial was in the Mooney cemetery.

TECHNICALITY CUTS SCHOOL REVENUE

Reports from Highwood are to the effect that through some oversight in the technical or legal side of the matter the increased taxes voted for the Oak Terrace school district last year are not available this year. The increased tax would have amounted to $5,775, according to this report. The district voted last year to avail itself of the privilege permitted under the new school law on taxation by increasing the levy from two and one-half to four per cent, which would produce additional revenues badly needed by the district for improved school facilities. Unless the reported legal technicality can be straightened out, the district will not be able to raise the additional sum by taxation until next year.

BARNYARD GOLFERS PLAN LEAGUE HERE

Horseshoe Devotees Are Alert And Many Recruits Are Expected

With the approach of spring the devotees of Barnyard Golf are beginning to polish up their horseshoes, and already during the few warm days a week ago, several games were played by early enthusiasts. It is expected that a league will be formed and a series of games played, and Highland Park players are looking forward to recouping losses to Lake Forest tilters of Dobbin's oxfords in the last two seasons, when the northern town's players carried off the honors twice. The silver cup donated by the Udell Printing company has been won two seasons in succession by Lake Forest, and one more season's win will give them the trophy permanently, and Highland Park horseshoe heavers are determined to change their luck this year.

It is expected that the game will have many new recruits here this year, as its popularity is increasing everywhere throughout the country. The National Horseshoe Pitchers association already has thousands of members and state and national tournaments are regular events each year. The game is being sponsored by community playground workers everywhere, and Director Walkup of the local Community Service organization is planning an exhibit of shoes and descriptive matter in the windows of the Community Center, with organization of a group of teams later when the season opens.

THREE MEN HELD IN HOLDUP CASE

One Arrested Here and Two In Chicago; Fourth Yegg Is Still at Large

Three men with police court records in Chicago are in the county jail at Waukegan charged with the three attempted holdups in Highland Park and Highwood early last week. Each was held to the grand jury under bond of $3,000 and they were sent to jail in default of bail. The three are Frank De Regio, Anthony Ornette and Joseph De Mattia. The fourth member of the quartet has not been apprehended.

De Regio, who was arrested shortly after the holdups, gave the nicknames of his companions and the two others were arrested in Chicago, where the police knew their haunts. All three claim that the fourth man, whom they call the "Big Dago," incited them to pull off the holdup stunts, and this fourth man is being sought. The three arrested last week were arraigned before Justice Smith Saturday and held to the grand jury.

STAHL RESIGNS AS DEPUTY SHERIFF

"Duke" Nolan Is Appointed to Fill the Vacancy; Has Had Experience

Sheriff Ahlstrom has announced the resignation of Chief Deputy T. J. Stahl, to take effect at once, and the appointment of Arnold T. (Duke) Nolan to fill the vacancy.

Stahl has been compelled to take this action, owing to the fact that business at the Real Estate office of T. J. Stahl & Co., has become so active as to demand his entire time and attention. Nolan has been one of the regular deputies since Sheriff Ahlstrom took office. He is an ex-service man with over 18 months service overseas.

LINES TO THE RAILROAD MEN'S HOME

Highland Park! oh, Highland Park! what visions come to me. The Railroad Home, standing alone, in fancy oft I see. The flagstaff, with the flag on high, a clean, outstanding mark. Informing travellers passing by, that here, is Highland Park.

The flower beds, in summer time, I viewed at early dawn. A mass of flowers beautiful upon a well kept lawn. The hedgerows leading to the porch are trimmed so spick and span, As if improving natures growth, to cheer the heart of man.

The old, disabled, maimed, infirm, reside within that "Home." Their every need and want supplied, around the place they roam. I have seen them live, I have seen them die, I have seen their pain and woe. I tended them, I cared for them, I speak as one who knows.

Paternal eyes watch over them, they live beneath the care Of one who, as one of themselves, is just the right man there. When Railroad men are in distress and life to them is dark, There is a light, that's always bright, The home in Highland Park.

"MYSTERY MAN" IS PUZZLE TO POLICE

Refuses to Talk or Display Any Sign of Understanding; Queer Case

The "man of mystery" was arrested in the south part of Highland Park Thursday night of last week and has been puzzling the police ever since. He refuses to talk or show any sign of understanding written messages. Every possible effort has been made by the police to surprise him into speech, but without success. At times he gets rough and kicks his cell door, and when Officer Rafferty took him a meal Saturday the man threw a tin bucket of coffee at the officer, narrowly missing him. The bucket was smashed flat against the wall by the force of the blow.

He seems to have a mania for soap and water and when he gets through his ablutions he invariably takes a bite of soap, fills his mouth with water and sluces it out, after which he swallows the mixture of water and soap. He was sent to the county jail yesterday.

No marks of identification were found on the man, except the initials "F. R." on his underwear and the same letters on a laundry ticket in a little note book he carried, but the name of the laundry had been torn off. In the notebook one page contains the name "Frank Bartos" and an address on West Randolph street. Inquiry through the Chicago police elicited the information that the address on Randolph street was a vacant lot. The man seems to have taken every possible means to prevent his identification.

Whether the man is insane or faking is impossible to determine, as a physician has examined him carefully. The police have made inquiry in every asylum and police headquarters in this part of the state without learning of anybody answering the man's description being reported missing.
