

What a Cost System Revealed About the Family Washing

A business woman, who had made a study of costs, applied a cost system to her own home—it revealed some startling facts.

For instance, she found that her family washing was costing her much more than she had ever dreamed.

The laundress's wages were $3.50; her carfare, 15 cents; her meals, 70 cents; and 25 cents went for fuel and laundry supplies, to say nothing of the valuable hours which this business woman devoted to supervision.

She decided, right then, that it wasn't good business.

Now she bundles up everything and sends it to us. Our driver calls promptly. The laundry, all washed and with the flat pieces beautifully ironed and only a few pieces to be finished, is returned to her on time, and she has leisure hours to herself.

Yes, this modern laundry service pays—we will prove it to your lasting satisfaction if you will have our driver call tomorrow for your family bundle. Telephone 178.

SOCIAL ACTIVITY

"Shoreacre—the scene of many hospitalities, was again opened to the friends of Mrs. Jessie Hopkins Boyer on March 17, the anniversary of that gracious hostess' birth. Flowers were everywhere, tokens of the love and esteem of senders from every quarter, letters, telegrams, birthday cakes and a table piled high with gifts bore a message to all of the appreciation felt for the woman who bears a heart so full of understanding for the good and true and beautiful in the world. From 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. people came and went with happy hearts to wish Mrs. Boyer good health and many more birthdays. Contributed.

Mrs. Leslie Brand entertained a number of friends at a kitchen shower, Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. George Brand.

Little Marion Goldberg entertained a number of little friends Tuesday afternoon from three to five in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Paul L. Udell entertained a number of friends Monday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Bennett's birthday anniversary.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kind sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement. Mrs. Anna Augustine and family.

OBITUARY

The funeral services for Mrs. Eugene J. Mitchell of Ravinia, whose death occurred last Thursday morning following a two years illness of cancer, were held last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the family residence, the Rev. W. E. Grose of Grace M. E. church officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park.

Mrs. Mitchell was born in Terre Haute, Ind., June 30, 1853 and was the daughter of Sophia Bishop and John Wilson. On June 5, 1885, she was married to Eugene J. Mitchell, and they settled in Glenview later moving to Half Day where they spent a number of years. For the last twenty-eight years they have resided in Ravinia, being among the early settlers of Ravinia.

She leaves to survive her, her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Wicklander of Highwood and Miss Azora of Ravinia and three grandchildren.

PRIVATE DANCING LESSONS

Mrs. J. P. McEvoy will take a limited number of pupils in Artistic, Eccentric, Pantomime and Ball Room dancing. Instead of opening a studio she will give private lessons in the home for the present. Before her marriage Mrs. McEvoy was Miss Mae Wurnelle of New York, formerly Leon Earle's dancing partner.

There is a growing feeling that if the president is going to deal with congress successfully at the next session, he will have to use kid gloves less and the shingle more.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH

William E. Grose, Pastor
Next Sunday, Palm Sunday, should be memorable from the fact that everybody who receives benefits and blessings because Christ came to earth, died and rose again, attend some church service. There are occasions when even the memorial Christian owes it to himself and family to be found in the house of worship on the sabbath day. Palm Sunday is one of those days. There is not room enough in all the churches of Highland Park to contain the crowds who ought to go to church next Sunday. Go to church somewhere. If convenient, and you have no preference that draws you elsewhere come to the "Little Church on the Corner" of Laretta Place and North avenue. This is the friendly church, extending a cordial welcome to all.

Next Sunday evening we are to have an illustrated lecture-sermon on the Life of Christ; from the cradle to the Cross. A set of wonderfully beautiful slides will be shown by Mr. E. M. Plunkett, of Chicago, who will also render appropriate solos.

Remember the services during Holy Week. Every evening at eight o'clock the pastor will lead in the theme of that particular day in the last week of your Lord before his resurrection. On Friday evening the events from the triumphal entry to and including the crucifixion and burial will be illustrated with a magnificent set of slides. Every evening will be worth while, but Good Friday evening should call for a crowded house.

Do not forget the musicale on Friday evening, March 23. We are all anticipating something specially fine from Mrs. M. L. Dudley of Chicago. Of course you will want to hear Miss MacWilliams, the blind pianiste, and the Borrites, sister and brother in their charming mandolin and guitar duets. We are expecting a capacity audience tomorrow (Friday) evening.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Monday evening the Naval Reserve are using the Center for their meetings. The citizenship classes for foreign born are held every Tuesday and Thursday evening. Wednesday the Boys' club and Friday evening the Leaders club will have another meeting. The Jr. Boys club will meet this Saturday evening.

During the afternoons the Center reminds one of the rehearsal halls around the theatrical district in New York. The children are getting ready to present "Pandora's Box" by Seymour Tibbals—and an adult group is working on two of the late act plays for the dramatic evening of the Lyceum Course that will be held at the Elm Place school.
