

What a Cost System Revealed About the Family Washing

A business woman, who had made a study of costs, applied a cost system to her own home—it revealed some startling facts.

For instance, she found that her family washing was costing her much more than she had ever dreamed.

The laundress's wages were $3.50; her carfare, 15 cents; her meals, 70 cents; and 25 cents went for fuel and laundry supplies, to say nothing of the valuable hours which this business woman devoted to supervision.

She decided, right then, that it wasn't good business.

Now she bundles up everything and sends it to us. Our driver calls promptly. The laundry, all washed and with the flat pieces beautifully ironed and only a few pieces to be finished, is returned to her on time, and she has leisure hours to herself.

Yes, this modern laundry service pays—we will prove it to your lasting satisfaction if you will have our driver call tomorrow for your family bundle. Telephone 178.

Testament History by Mr. E. M. Plunkett, who will also sing for us.

The most interesting musical event of the season in North Highland Park was the concert given under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society last Friday evening. Our space is too limited to adequately mention each number. Suffice to say that Highland Parkers are always proud of our local artists, especially Miss Sylvia Trout and Eric Engberg. The readings by Miss Mabel Griggs were most excellent and well received. Mr. Edward Sickels, the blind musician, pleased the audience greatly; the Bonites were roundly applauded, which they richly deserved. Mrs. Frank Dudley's marvelous voice and pleasing personality captured all our hearts. Such wonderful music is not often heard, and all felt that her contributions to the evening's event were of the highest order. Mr. H. V. Nichols as accompanist added new laurels to his crown. Financially the affair was a success. The heart-warming feature of the evening was the keen appreciation of the Orphans from Dorcas Home and Lake Bluff Orphanage. They were the guests of an unknown donor who bought blocks of tickets for them. At an early date we will announce another musical event of equal grade for which Mrs. Dudley has promised to contribute a part.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH

William E. Grote, Pastor
 Good Friday (tomorrow) evening the service will be made all the more interesting by the beautiful pictures and the instrumental and vocal music by Mr. E. M. Plunkett. His introductory service last Sunday evening delighted the good-sized audience. It will be worth your while to attend this service.

Tonight (Thursday) Rev. W. H. Holgate will be the speaker. Mr. Holgate has been a lay preacher for many years, and will have an interesting message. The theme will be "The Comforter."

Next Sunday morning at six o'clock the usual sunrise service that has been a feature of this church on Easter Sunday for many years, will have the added feature of pictures illustrating the events of Resurrection morn.

At 10 o'clock the Sunday school will assist in the Order of Worship by singing the hymns and reading the passages under the title of "Our Christ Liveth." This will be a truly beautiful service, with special numbers by the Beginners and Primary department. A part of the service will consist of reception of members and baptism of children. Not the least important feature will be the annual Easter offering.

On Easter Sunday evening we are to have an illustrated sermon on Old

From the third to the fifth of April the pastoral conference of the northern district of North Illinois will meet at our church, about 50 ministers are members of this conference.

While meeting at our church the pastors are guests of our congregation. Members will gladly open their homes to them, and the Ladies' Aid will hospitably serve meals in the assembly room.

The Sunday school teachers institute of the north shore will again take up its work after Easter. The first meeting will be held on Monday evening, April 2nd. This is intended as a get-together meeting, which will take place at the Evanston school, where a dinner will be served. All workers in the Sunday school, and all interested in the work are urged to attend.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kind sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our great sorrow, the death of our darling baby, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Christopher.
