

RUGS

THE RELIABLE LAUNDRY, Launderers, Dry Cleaners and Dyers
HIGHLAND PARK AND LIBERTYVILLE
 Phone Highland Park 178

Rug Cleaning Time

When you house clean you will want your rugs cleaned. Of course you will want them cleaned the best way possible.

Let us Dry Clean them in Naptha or gasoline. This process will clean them thoroughly, free them from danger of Moths and brighten the colors to look like new.

There is no better, nor thorough way and we know you will be perfectly satisfied.

Now Open for Business

Highwood Auto Painting Co.

Located on Railroad Avenue opposite Highwood Station. Why send your car out of town to have it painted? When you can have it done here. Doing the highest grade of work. We can attend to your paint job at once.

Phone Highland Park 1361

AUTO PAINTING, MONOGRAMMING AND STRIPING

DEERFIELD NEWS

The Deerfield Parent-Teacher association met Thursday afternoon at the school house. Mrs. Ray Hummel read a paper. The school children sang several songs, directed by Miss Williams with Miss Bergfeld at the piano. Miss Bergfeld's room had the most mothers present. Mrs. Oscar Beecham, the president, appointed a nominating committee, composed of six members, with Mrs. William Kreh chairman. Hostesses for the social hour that followed were Mrs. John Stryker, Mrs. Fred Haggie and Mrs. Frank Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Plagge and two children are living in the Koebelin building.

Mrs. Floyd Gunckel left Saturday to join her husband, who is living in Galesburg.

There will be no school Friday in either the grammar school or the high school, to allow the teachers to attend the annual meeting of the Illinois State Teachers association of the Lake Shore division to be held Friday in Evanston.

The school election was held Saturday evening, April 14, at the Wilmet school. There were two candidates, Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb and Fred Beckman. Mrs. Whitcomb received a majority of the votes and was elected district clerk for the term of three years.

The regular meeting of the Deerfield Men's club will be held at 8:15 p. m. Thursday, April 19 at the school house.

Mrs. Nathan M. Sharpe has returned from Europe and has opened her country estate on the County Line road, formerly the Reichelt, Sr., farm.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger of Highland Park visited at the home of Mrs. Stanger's uncle, George Rockenbach, Sunday.

Auston Plagge, who lives in the Harder apartment, is building a house across from his father, William Plagge, and just north of Kottrach's.

Mrs. William Schinleber will be hostess to the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Montavon will lead the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Labahn had as their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty of Chicago.

Mrs. Charles Selig is ill. Mr. Selig has taken a two months leave of absence from his duties as C. M. and St. P. station agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell La Ville entertained six couples at a five hundred party, Saturday evening.

The Dorcas society will give a bakery sale, Saturday April 28. Mesdames E. C. Becker and R. M. Vant are in charge of arrangements for the sale.

Mrs. Albert Hagi will entertain the Sewing club of St. Paul's church at her home, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Patterson attended the funeral of Mrs. Patterson's brother, Harrison Dickey Barber, last Saturday in Chicago. Mr. Barber died at the Englewood hospital of dropsy. He was thirty-three years of age and is survived by his widow and two small children, Ruth and Russell Barber. Burial was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mrs. J. P. Schneider of Chicago visited friends in Deerfield, Thursday.

Mrs. Jacob Kiest and daughter, Mrs. Edgar Wessling and Virginia Wessling of Northbrook, were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Arthur M. Kiest, Thursday.

Mrs. Ray Gunckel entertained at an informal afternoon affair Thursday. Mrs. Almon Powers (Mildred Whiting) and Mrs. Roy V. Hutchinson (Laura Fletcher) former Deerfield girls and both from Irving Park, were the out-of-town guests.

Mrs. S. M. Góder entertained the Young Matrons, Wednesday afternoon at her home on West Deerfield road.

Miss Irene Rockenbach of Lansing, Mich., visited her father, George Rockenbach, over the week-end while en route to northern Michigan for religious conferences.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pettis were hosts to the Young Matrons and their husbands, at Five Hundred, Saturday evening. Prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf, Mrs. Ray Gunckel and Robert Greenlade.

Miss Viola Rockenbach and her father, George Rockenbach, returned Saturday from Hollywood, California where they have been visiting the Preston Rockenbach family for several months.

Mrs. A. R. Warner, Mrs. E. B. Jordan, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., and Miss Sadie Galloway attended the annual musicale given by the North Shore chapter of the D. A. R., at the home of Mrs. Carleton Moseley, of Highland Park, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Gus Klemp will be hostess to the Thursday afternoon club this week.

Mrs. George Engstrom of Central ave., had as her guest Wednesday, Mrs. C. C. Freer of Glenview.

Miss Margaret Carolan, who teaches manual training in the Patrick Henry school, Chicago, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. John Carolan. William Carolan of Shreveport, La., is also visiting his mother.

Mrs. M. Cauley, Mrs. George Rettig, Mrs. Mary Freberg and son, Norman, Mrs. Frank Mower and son, Thomas of Highland Park, Mrs. Etta Shergur, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fee and son, Richard of North Chicago were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Anna Flood.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Merner, Mrs. Henry Merner and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oip of Evanston spent last Sunday at the Arthur Merner home.

The members of the Deerfield orchestra of the Evangelical church will give a banquet Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wessling.

Rev. V. E. Stakemiller directed the choir of the Diversy Parkway church, Sunday evening of which he was formerly pastor. The choir gave the Easter program at the Hoynes ave., Evangelical church. Rev. Ruetzke of the Diversy Parkway church filled the Deerfield Evangelical church pulpit Sunday evening in Rev. Stakemiller's absence.

The orchestra gave a program Sunday evening and will continue to do so every Sunday evening. George Beckman played a violin solo "Jerusalem."

A surprise party was given Saturday evening for Henry Juhrend, at his home, in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Donald Easton who plays a saxophone, has joined the Deerfield orchestra.

Miss Grace Robbins, who is attending the Pestalozzi-Froebel school Chicago, is getting her practice teaching by cadeting in the Deerfield primary room under the supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Silber Worth who is a graduate of the Pestalozzi-Froebel Kindergarten college.

In order to raise money for the state endowment fund for the traveling expenses of the P. T. A. state president, the D. S. H. S. association is taxing each member fifty cents.

The high school pupils will have their vacation next week, April 21-29, cago, last week.

The Harry Muhlkes moved Saturday from the Lincoln Pettis flat to their new bungalow on Central avenue, built for them by Pettis Bros.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., attended a conference of Progressive education association at the Drake hotel, Chicago last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roll, who live in the Stryker apartments, entertained company from Arlington Heights, Sunday.

William Galloway was elected school director for district 109, without opposition. Frank Hempstead, the retiring member withdrew his candidacy just before the election.

George T. Rogers of Lake Forest was elected a member of the Township High school board of Education to serve three years, at the election, Saturday afternoon for district 113. It was a very quiet election as Mr. Rogers was unopposed.

Continued on Page 11)

Good Clothes Certainly!

E. B. FOXWORTHY

That is what my customers say about it—and they are all starting savings accounts. Can you beat that? $ $ $ $

Remember—
Latest styles
Best prices
Highest quality
Tailored especially for you

E. B. FOXWORTHY

507 Central Avenue

Highland Park

Have You Tried Chicago Shoe Repairing?

Our aim is to do good work and to satisfy our customers. If for any reason you should happen to be dissatisfied with any part of our service, don't keep it to yourself, or tell others—tell us. We guarantee our work and our materials.

Chicago Shoe Repairing
GARABAD ENJAIAN
47 S. St. Johns Ave.

To know how good a cigarette really can be made you must try a

SOCIAL ACTIVITY

Mrs. Walter Meierhoff entertained the Philathea class of the Evangelical church, Tuesday evening. A most delightful program was rendered, followed by a social hour. Several new members were received. The attendance was unusually large.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Roberts of Green Bay road, were given a farewell surprise, Thursday evening, by a number of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Seward of Central avenue attended the dinner and dance given for ladies by the Indiana society in Chicago on Saturday, April 14.

Mrs. George Lytton of Hazel avenue entertained at luncheon today (Thursday).

The Willing Helpers class (Mrs. Botker's class) met at the home of Miss Lillian Redine of South Second street on Tuesday evening, April 14.

Mrs. H. J. Reynolds of North Second street entertained at a party in honor of Mrs. H. G. Roberts of North Green Bay road, on Monday afternoon, April 16. Five hundred was the feature of the afternoon. Mrs. Roberts leaves for Plymouth, Mass., on Friday.

Mrs. A. W. Parson entertained the Speed Girls Bunco club on Thursday, April 12. There were present Mrs. Dorothy Hussander, Mrs. Ollie Berguson, Mrs. Katherine Peck, Mrs. Anna Winkelman and Mrs. Elsie Sallet.

Mrs. James Daly of Waukegan is to be hostess to the Friday Night club this evening.

The Worth While circle was entertained at the home of Miss Edith Hansen last Tuesday evening.

James Sheehan was given a delightful surprise party Saturday evening by 20 of his friends.

Don Albert Shelton of Highwood entertained several boy friends at a bunco party at his home on Thursday, April 12th. The prize winners were Robert Stokes, Frank Mowers, and Harold Brown. The out-of-town guests were Frank Ratke and Harold Brown of Waukegan.

The Philathea class of the United Evangelical church met Tuesday evening, April 17, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Tillman with 25 girls present.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph G. Keagle were delightfully surprised last evening (Wednesday) by a host of friends who came to help them celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. A delightful program was rendered. A most enjoyable evening was spent by those present.

We Recommend

for your consideration
LACO

"That high powered gasoline" on the basis of Uniformity—refined from one crude, by one refinery by one method, insuring you of one grade gasoline.

also
LACO MOTOR OILS

"That tonic to your motor" on the basis of

Less wear, less tear, longer life and scientific lubrication

Lake County Oil Co.

Strictly Independent (Not Incorporated)
Phone H. P. 359 Highland Park, Illinois

The Size of Your Grounds

has little to do with the possibilities of the work of the efficient landscape gardener.

Charles Fore Nurseries SPECIALISTS IN Landscape Gardening

Altho large estates provide material for magnificent vistas, the smallest estate can be improved wonderfully.

I would be very glad to talk the matter over with you in person.

Prairie Avenue, Highwood, Ill. Phone Highland Park 523