DEERFIELD NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barrett and son of Prairie View spent last Sunday with Mrs. Barrett's mother, Mrs. John Carolan.

Miss Grace Carolan and her mother expect to leave next week to visit Mrs. Charles Moran (Bessie Carolan) in Highland Park (a suburb of Los Angeles, Cal.)

Earl and Arthur Kiesgen of Holland, Michigan are staying with their sister, Mrs. George Herrmann.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will meet next Sunday evening at the home of Helen and Wallace Reichelt.

It is reported that fifteen Highland Park families have purchased acre tracts at four thousand dollars an acre, adjoining the Briarcliff Golf Club, from William M. Reay and John E. Woodman.

Lilace Reid Barnes, the soprano soloist of the Deerfield Presbyterian church choir, is a daughter of Clifford Barnes of Lake Forest, president of the Sunday evening club of Orchestra hall.

Little Jack Myers, who lives at the home of Mrs. Hiram Robbins, is quarantined with chicken-pox.

Dr. C. Johnston Davis has been elected a commissioner to the general assembly meeting in Indianapolis, Indiana, May 15, by the Presbytery of Chicago. Out of the ten Elders to be sent from Chicago, Dr. Davis received the fourth highest vote.

Beginning next Sunday and continuing until the completion of the new church all departments of the church will meet in the grammar school. The hours for morning worship remain the same. There will be no evening services.

There are now 229 pupils enrolled in the Presbyterian church school.

The public does not care how many or how fierce dogs President Harding keeps in the White House, and it merely suggests that they be fed on the trousers of office seekers.

The soviet Russian government should not be blamed even if they did execute 1,700,000 people, as under the bolshevist system a lot of them would have starved to death anyway.
