This is one of the many beautiful Face Brick homes we have to show you.

Beautiful, Durable Homes

THE thoughtful builder knows that he cannot get real satisfaction in building his home, unless he combines the artistic with the durable. Face Brick, in its wide range of color tones and textures, and in the artistic effects possible through the handling of bonds and mortar joints, offers an appeal to the most diverse tastes.

Besides, there is the solid satisfaction of knowing that for structural strength, fire-safety, and economy in the long run, no other material equals Face Brick.

Come in and talk to us about it or get a copy of "The Story of Brick", which tells all the facts. Also see our big collection of 3 to 8-room Face Brick houses. No obligation. We are here to serve you.

RAVINIA SEASON TO BE A BRILLIANT ONE

OPENS SATURDAY, JUNE 23

List of Singers Announced Includes Some of Most Famous Stars; Additional Features Planned

The entire North Shore is interested in the announcement of the list of singers to be on the Ravinia program this season, which is scheduled to open earlier than in previous years, the date being Saturday, June 23, according to preliminary announcement issued by Mr. Eckstein concerning the talent to participate during the season.

The usual arrangement is to be followed in the matter of weekly programs, with a concert on Mondays and three matinees during the week. Manager Arthur M. Lowrie is in charge again this season and is preparing as usual for the efficient conduct of the opera season and the providing of all necessary accessories which will make for the comfort and entertainment of the thousands of patrons who will attend during the season.

List of Talent

The list of singers for the season includes the following:

Sopranos — Elizabeth Retberg, Florence Easton, Graziella Pareto, Josephine Luchese, Margery Maxwell. Contraltos and mezzo-sopranos — Ina Boursakaya, Marion Telva, Philine Falco, Anna Correnti.

Tenors — Tito Schipa, Giacomo Lauri-Volpi, Armand Tokatyan, Morgan Kingston, Giordano Paltrinieri.

Baritones — Giuseppe Danise, Vicente Ballester, Louis D'Angelo, Desire Defrere.

Basses — Leon Rother, Virgilio Lazzari, Paolo Ananian.

There will be four conductors — Gennaro Papi, Louis Hasselmans, Wilfrid Pelletier, and Giamomo Spadoni, and the Chicago Symphony orchestra has been re-engaged for both the operas and the concerts.

Nearly all of the singers and three of the conductors are of the Metropolitan Opera. So, also is the stage director, Armando Agnini, whose return is welcome for he has done well in the seasons of his work at Ravinia. The non-Metropolitans are the Misses Pareto, Luchese, Maxwell, Falco, Correnti, the Messrs. Schipa, Ballester, Defrere, Lazzari, and Spadoni. Of these Mr. Defrere was for a time a member of the Metropolitan's forces; and, also of these, only Miss Luchese is not of the Chicago Opera.

Additions Planned

That the program will be not only a brilliant one but widely varied and filled with the best of the musical world can be indicated by the advance notices. It is also planned to make some important additions, regarding which Mr. Eckstein is quoted as follows:

"If we sang each opera in the ready list twice only, we should not have enough nights in the season to exhaust the repertoire. But we hope to make additions—for one, 'Tristan' for another Giordano's 'Andrea Chenier'; also Massenet's 'Sapho,' and possibly, John Hugo Adam's 'The Temple Dancer,' if I can persuade Miss Easton to restudy the title role, which she originated when the little opera was done in the Metropolitan some years ago."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Bids will be received by the Council of the City of Highland Park until Friday, May 11th, 1923 at 5:00 o'clock P. M. for the furnishing of all material and labor required in rebuilding an American LaFrance Fire Engine into a city service hook and ladder truck in accordance with the specifications therefor on file in my office in the City Hall.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

By order of the Council.

BLACK HAND THREAT MAY HAVE BEEN JOKE

Tailors Flee When Warning Letters Received Despite Police Offer

Sudden flight of De Rensis Brothers, tailors, last Friday following receipt of letters alleged to be of "black hand" origin caused a stir among the other tenants of the building at 364 Central avenue, some of whom also received letters.

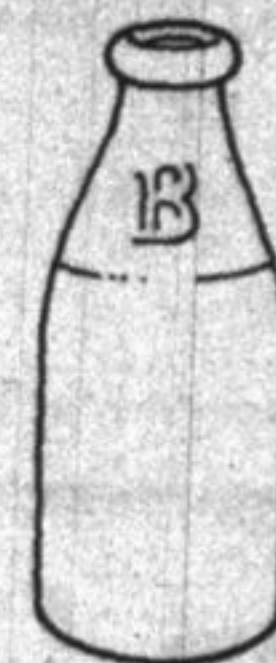

The police were not notified, but when Chief Maroney heard of the matter he visited the tailors as they were packing to leave and offered them 24-hour police protection every day, but they seemed determined on flight and left hurriedly, apparently in fear of alleged threats of death in the letters said to have been received. Other tenants who received warning to leave remained and were unmolested.

The opinion of the police is that there was something back of the whole proceeding which did not appear on the surface, and in any event the letters did not look like genuine "black hand" warnings. The whole affair may have been either a joke or a "frame-up" of some kind, but so far no definite explanation has been forthcoming.
