Some people are enjoying the golden sunshine so much that they have forgotten all about the rubbish heaps in their backyards.

Judging by the number of speed maniacs on the road, a large number of new insane asylums are going to be necessary.

PHONE OPERATORS

RECEIVE MEDALS

Twenty employees of the Illinois Bell Telephone company have received Theodore N. Vail Medals for noteworthy public service during the year 1922.

Many stories of heroic deeds are contained in the citations which accompanied the awards. Saving of human lives, protection of property, as well as rendering service of general public benefit, were among the reasons for the awards. Selection of the outstanding cases worthy of award was a difficult task for the reason that the routine duties of a telephone employe involve so many services of an unusual nature.

The national Memorial day is sure to be enthusiastically celebrated, as it comes at a favorable time for baseball, and the roads are in good condition for motoring.
