CLAIMS JAZZ AGE FOE OF GIRLHOOD

CITIES JUNGLELAND TYPE

Missionary Declares Flappers Are Like Young Girls of Heathen Countries in Many Ways

"The age of jazz is forcing American girls into early marriage just as the torrid wild life of the jungle leads black, yellow and brown girls into wedlock at 10 years of age."

This is the impression that missionaries, absent from America for ten years, receive as they arrive in New York and Chicago for the great conference of the Christian and Missionary Alliance to be held at the Gospel Tabernacle, Clark and Halsted streets, beginning Tuesday.

Paul Rader, president of the alliance, described the reactions of the missionary today in an address before the committee of business men who are to represent the city in welcoming the seventy foreign missionaries and 600 home delegates.

Lack of Girlhood
"The first thing the missionaries note is the entire lack of girlhood in America today," he said. "Jazz, flapperism, drinking, dancing are crowding girls right into womanhood and premature adulthood before they have a chance at girlhood. They ripen too fast, and unless the country is restored to sanity we may have marriages here at the ridiculous ages seen in the wild lands of the tropics."

"Girls at 13 and 14 here keep company with boys but little older, speed with them in automobiles, drink, are grown women, pretend to be vampires and deliberately lose all their girlhood. They talk of marriage at ages which horrify one. Child brides are the rule in the jungles. They seem to be the goal here, too. The savages do not know any better. America does, but it will not admit it until it accepts the return of the old-time religion."

MENDENHALL LECTURE CLOSES P. T. A. MEET

Descriptive Lecture, "On English China" Tuesday evening at Miss Ewing's residence

A descriptive lecture on "Quality in English China" by Mr. Abram Mendenhall, an authority on this subject well known in Europe and America will be given in Highland Park next Tuesday evening, June 5th, 1923, at the home of Miss Ruth Ewing, 541 South St., Johns Avenue, at 8 o'clock.

This will be illustrated with fine specimens from the most celebrated potters in England, especially loaned for this occasion. The talk will not be confined to rare old china but will deal with the modern porcelain as well. Mr. Mendenhall will give the relative value of different potteries from the best European and American manufacturers and show the comparative merit of earthenware, Queensware, porcelain and bone china; also, he will make suggestions for the proper service for both formal and informal entertainments in public places and private homes. Opportunity for authoritative information on modern Ceramic Art is unusual, and this unique illustrated talk promises to be highly educational as well as entertaining.

The occasion is the last meeting for the season of the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher association, and a short business session and election of officers will be held. All members of the P. T. A. are most cordially invited to be present.

LARGE GOLD NUGGETS FROM SMALL VEINS

Found in Out-of-Way Region in Monterey County in State of California

In a rugged, out-of-the-way region on the ocean side of the Coast Ranges, in Monterey county, California, gold nuggets have been found of such size as to suggest that this was once the favorite retreat of the proverbial goose that laid the golden eggs. Matter-of-fact prospectors, however, have sought to find the veins from which such masses of gold, loosened by the weather, were washed into the stream beds. Their search has not been successful, and J. M. Hill, a United States geologist of the Department of the Interior, in a report just published suggests that the nuggets came from rich superficial pockets in very small veins, and that no large and rich deposits are likely to be found by deep mining. The Coast Ranges of California, unlike the Sierra Nevada, are not rich in gold, and the occurrence of these large nuggets is exceptional and illustrates the fact, known to many prospectors, that the discovery of a few large nuggets does not necessarily indicate the existence of a rich deposit of gold ore in place.

Mr. Hill's report, entitled "The Los Burros district, Monterey County, California," is published as Bulletin 735-J and can be obtained on application to the Director of the Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

HOUGH AIDED MANY PUBLIC PROJECTS

Gave Much to Game Preservation Movement; Will Filed Shows Property

The late Emerson Hough, generally supposed to have been one of the country's most successful authors, left an estate not exceeding $27,000, it was revealed when a petition to have his will admitted to record was filed in the probate court in Waukegan.

However, the valuation of the estate, coming immediately after Mr. Hough is known to have received high payment for the sale of "The Covered Wagon" and "North of 36" came as no surprise to his intimate friends.

Mr. Hough was intensely interested in game preservation and the conservation of land for national parks," said Edwin Balmer, the Evanston author. "To these ends he devoted almost the entire fortune he earned through writing."

"In addition Mr. Hough served the United States Government without pay and at his own expense during the entire time of our participation in the world war."

"His war work left him no time for his own interests. While he was thus serving he earned nothing in any way."

Many of the people who are going abroad this summer probably think they have learned all this country knows.

More than 10,000 tons of talcum powder were used by American women last year. Many folks will be surprised to know it was so little.

Claimed that people are too "soft" nowadays, and this is true of the heads of many of them anyway.

The automobile speeders will soon be claiming that pedestrians in due time will get so used to being run over that they will like it.
