

Readers of The Highland Park Press

Should See

North Shore Cemetery

This Week or next Sunday, and thus enjoy a visit to an Earthly Paradise

Visitors will have the rare treat of seeing the finest display of Lilacs, Spirea, Honeysuckles [Several varieties of each], Red-leaf Maples, Purple-leaf Plums, Golden Elder, Golden Ash and thirty other varieties of interesting trees in Illinois.

Come, and see the difference between a refined Landscape Garden place of Interment (In every feature a credit to the North Shore) and a "burying ground."

Cars will be sent to North Chicago stations for all who call Telephone North Chicago 1067 for that service.

JOHN WESTERN

President

On Green Bay Road North of Lake Forest

DEERFIELD NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker and family left Saturday for an extended motor trip in the West. They will go to Le Mars, Iowa, to get their daughter, Laurel, who has completed her first year at the Western Union College at Le Mars. From there they will go to North Dakota to visit relatives.

Miss Ethel Reay, sister of William M. Reay of Highland Park, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pettis visited Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thomas of Saugatuck Corners, near Gurnee, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf had as their guests last Sunday, Mrs. Herbert Horton of North Carolina, Mrs. Gertrude Olendorf and son, Wilson, of Libertyville.

Mrs. A. H. Muhlke entertained, Saturday, in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Vetter of Chicago, and Miss Laura Muhlke of River Forest.

Mrs. George Engstrom and two children left Friday to visit in Cedar Rapids and Marion, Iowa. Mr. Engstrom spent the week-end with his family in Cedar Rapids.

Howard Flagg of St. Louis, Mo., was a dinner guest at the H. B. Carr home Sunday.

Otto Knaak has entered the real estate business in Chicago.

The spring tournament of the Briegate Golf Club was held Saturday, June 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Anderson were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teckler of Crystal Lake, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Ashenbush and two sons, John and James of Irving Park were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf attended a bridge tea at the home of Mrs. John Davis of Chicago, Saturday.

Irwin Plagge spent Sunday in Urbana at the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Frantz and two daughters, left Sunday for a trip to Kansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. William Clark entertained a number of her friends at a picnic on her spacious lawn, Tuesday.

Mrs. James Goldring of Highwood will entertain the Sewing Club next Tuesday afternoon at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mervic Peterson of Libertyville, Wednesday evening.

Miss Susie Easton and Eleanor Meyer spent Wednesday at the Woman's Residence Hall, University of Illinois, at Urbana, and visited Miss Virginia Easton and Miss Dorothy Reichelt.

Miss Laura Muhlke of River Forest spent last Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Vant.

A large number of North Shore people have been driving to Deerfield the past few weeks to Mr. Franken's beautiful tulip beds.

Mrs. Floyd Gunckel of Galesburg spent several days of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Love. On Thursday afternoon she was hostess to the Young Matrons.

Mrs. Robert Pettis will be the next hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gunckel and small son will motor to Galesburg this week to visit Mr. Gunckel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gunckel. They will gone about a week.

Miss Dorothy Reichelt returned Tuesday from the University of Illinois for a short vacation before resuming her studies there, this summer.

The Gunckel, Hutchinson, Reeds and Bleimehl families attended the funeral of a relative, Harry Townsend of Beaver Falls, Penn., who was buried last Wednesday at Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clavey spent last Sunday at Lake Geneva, Wis.

Norman Dietz is building a Dutch Colonial house on Second street.

Miss Vivian Haggie has recovered from scarlet fever and is out of quarantine.

Miss Josephine Woodman entertained the Five Hundred Club, Tuesday afternoon.

A. J. Ender, E. J. Bingham, Mrs. John Ender, Miss Clara Ender, and Mrs. Amelia Pyle attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Antes Hanselman of Chicago, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gunckel and son Le Ray spent Sunday with the Bodenstutz family of Chicago.

Miss Eva Ender is living with Mrs. J. J. Bingham of Irving Park and is taking a course in laboratory work at St. Joseph's Hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Lord and son Raymond visited at the home of Mrs. Lord's father, C. W. Pettis, last Sunday.

The C. B. Easton house has been rented to Chicago people, who are operating a tavern called "Briergate Inn."

Gerald and Harold Herbert, one of the pairs of twins at the Dorcas Home will go to Bison, South Dakota, this summer, to work on a ranch.

Sunday, July 1st, has been definitely set as the beginning of Dedication Week for the New Presbyterian Church.

Miss Margaret Plagge will complete her two year course this month at the National Kindergarten College, Chicago.

Twenty eighth graders from Deerfield, seventeen from Northbrook, seven from Wilmet and six from Everett spent Thursday at the annual "Grammar School Day" celebration at the high school. The incoming Freshman class for next fall will number 250, which is almost half of the enrollment of the school this year. The increased number from this vicinity will require an additional trip by the bus.

Miss Grace Robbins was one of the sixty-six young women who graduated Tuesday evening from the Pestalozzi Froebel Teachers' College. The annual dinner and commencement exercises were held at the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago. Dr. Joseph Manson Artman of the University of Chicago, delivered the address.

Scoutmaster Irwin Plagge and thirteen of his Boy Scouts camped in Barretts Woods, along the Des Plaines river, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. E. J. Knickerbocker was the guest of Mrs. Robert Greenslade of Highland Park, Wednesday.

Jack Beckley, the motorcycle cop for Deerfield was married Saturday, May 26, to Miss Marie Rafferty of Highland Park, and spent their honeymoon in Indianapolis. They have rented the upper flat in the house owned by Mrs. Henry Wessling on West Deerfield avenue.

Miss Macy Selig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig, will be married this summer, to Clifford Hammer of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gayne and little daughter, Marilyn, of Forest Park, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Gayne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Plagge.

Mrs. S. S. Love had as her guests Wednesday, Mrs. William McHugh and son, Paul, of Austin.

The quarterly meeting of the Foreign and Home Missionary Presbyterian Women's Societies will be held Thursday, June 7, at the Waukegan Presbyterian Church.

The Summer Auxiliary meeting of the Presbyterian Home will be held on the grounds, in North Evanston, Monday, June 11.

Reverend M. L. Thomas spent several days of last week in Peoria, and attended Memorial Day ceremonies at Springdale Cemetery.

The eighth grade graduating class were entertained at a party Monday evening at the Briergate Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Daley and family of Rogers Park were guests at the Ender home Wednesday.

The Dorcas Society will meet next Thursday at the Community House.

St. John's Evangelical Church

N. Green Bay road and Homewood avenue.

F. Holke, pastor.

There will be neither Sunday School nor services held at this church on Sunday, June 10. Rev. Holke leaves on Saturday for Freeport, Ill., to preach at the seventy-fifth anniversary of St. John's Church, where he was pastor for fourteen years previous to coming to Highland Park.

On Sunday, June 17, Children's Day services will be held. Sunday School and church services will be united in one Children's Service, beginning at 10 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject for next Sunday's Lesson sermon, "God the Only Cause and Creator."

Services are held in this church every Sunday morning at 10:45, Sunday school meets at twelve o'clock and is open to pupils up to the age of 20 years. The Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing, is at 8 o'clock.

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room at 387 Central avenue, which is open every week day from nine o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the evening and Sunday afternoon from two to six o'clock.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH

William E. Grose, Minister

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Louis Miller, 603 Homewood avenue, next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Okey will assist the hostess.

The Sunday School will celebrate Children's Day with appropriate exercises next Sunday, June 10, at ten o'clock. There will be no preaching service in the morning.

Sunday evening sermon and song service at 7:45. Theme: "The Investment of Influence."

Epworth League service at 6:45 p.m.

"I see by the papers," says Mrs. Purdy, "that doctors say Orange Blossoms may be used for an anesthetic."

"Well," and she gave a hard look at her lesser half, "I was unconscious when we were married."

Penan Nink, says:—"The feller never gets any honey who's 'traid of getting stung."

Of the birds who do things, Without any cause, Are the after dinner speakers, Who pause for applause.

Then there's the kind who With no cause, whatever, "Laff" at their own jokes And think them so clever.

Queen Quality

Little Queen SHOES

Style, Fit and Value for the Growing Girl

TO buy a pair of shoes stamped with the "Little Queen" trade mark is to be sure of the superior workmanship and materials which have made Queen Quality shoes for women the world's standard of worth in wear. And like Queen Quality shoes for the grown-ups—They Fit where others Fail.

And while "Little Queen" shoes are built on lasts scientifically designed to allow the foot to develop naturally, they are never heavy or clumsy looking, but possess a trim and youthful style sure to please critical little "Miss In-between."

For school, for playtime, for "dress up," the growing girl who wears "Little Queen" shoes is always beautifully, comfortably and economically shod.

A sturdy, good-looking little oxford with a smart and youthful style that's all its own.

Our Queen quality Women's shoes are complete in every detail.

Special for Saturday—White Reinskin Oxfords and Pumps $5.00 value. $3.95

FELL BROTHERS

QUEEN QUALITY AND FLORSHEIM SHOES
Phone Highland Park 456 509 Central Avenue