Bungalow, story-and-a-half and two-story houses—you will find them all from three to eight rooms in our collection of beautiful, economical Face Brick homes.

Building Against Fire

THERE'S a fine sense of security in knowing that your treasures and your family are safe from fire. Brick is the most fire-resistant of all the building materials.

Then, too, your Face Brick house is the most beautiful, durable, comfortable and economical house you can build; and that's about all you can ask of a building material.

Surely it is worth while to know about Face Brick before you build.

Come in and get all the facts about this building material that is becoming more popular every year. Or send for a copy of "The Story of Brick," a booklet of interest to anyone thinking of building.

OBJECTIONS FILED TO TAXES LEVIED

MANY FROM THIS CITY

Nearly 200 From Highland Park and Lake Forest, Besides As Many Others Are Objectors

More than a score of petitions were filed in county court Tuesday protesting against taxes, the objectors aggregating approximately 400, Highland Park, Lake Forest, Zion and Winthrop Harbor being the source of most of the protests, but there were a number of others, including the Roman Catholic property at Area and Am Echod congregation, Waukegan.

The objections run up into several hundred thousand dollars, most of this being on property in Highland Park and Lake Forest.

Among the more important petitions filed are the following:

Local Objectors
Several hundred objectors in Highland Park and Lake Forest, filed petition through Attorneys Gail, Schumacher & Murphy, claiming excessive assessment, alleged illegality of a large number of the taxes levied for the various taxing bodies.

Several hundred objectors in Zion filed through Attorneys Hall & Hulse voicing protest against their special assessments in the construction of the Sheridan road paving.

H. F. Dickinson and W. S. A. Bletsch of Highland Park claim there was a mistake in the extension of their taxes.

D. N. Lewis of Lake Forest, claims $180 of his taxes are excessive.

Jennie L. Brooke of Lake Bluff, claims $87.88 of her taxes are erroneous.

The Community Service property of Highland Park objects on the ground that its work is patriotic and conducted without profit.

Railroads Also
The Chicago & Northwestern railroad filed objections, stating that they have paid all but $2,602.96, which they claim is excessive.

Chicago, Minneapolis & St. Paul railroad company, through Atty. Paul MacGuffin, claims $6,575.67 of their taxes are excessive and ask that it be eliminated.
