The people who drive cars with one hand, often have to hobble on one foot for some time thereafter.

SOCIAL ACTIVITY

One of the largest and most brilliant weddings in Highland Park was that of Miss Florence Catherine Wanless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wanless, 851 N. Sheridan road, to Mr. Clarence Armour Parliament on Saturday evening, June 23rd. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. P. C. Wolcott, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, assisted by the Rev. Walter Biehler, amid some four hundred guests, many of whom were school day associates of Miss Wanless, and other friends from Canada and the coast borders. The bride was gowned in brocade silver cloth, tulle veil and orange blossoms. The bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and orchids. The matron of honor, Mrs. Orrin S. Peabody, wore pink organdy over silver cloth, and her bouquet was a shower of larkspur and white roses. The maids of honor, Misses Mansfield Jones, Catherine Rugh, Ethel McCall, Roma Truax and Mrs. Ralph Huszagh were attired in blue organdy over silver cloth and carried old fashioned bouquets. Master Parliament Peabody was ringbearer and little Lois Loraine Harris with Master Sanford Peabody attended as flower girl and page, the boys in peach satin, the flower girl in white net trimmed in flowers of the bridal colors. The ushers were Messrs. Samuel Bingham, Jr., Warren W. Howard, Daniel Head, Jr., Bernard Drow and Ralph Huszagh. The groom was attended by Orrin S. Peabody. The young couple are now on an extended trip through the New England States, the White Mountains and Canada, and on their return will be at home at 236 Moraine road.

Rhinehart of Lake Worth, Fla., former residents of this city were married Sunday afternoon, June seventeenth at the Christian church parsonage, service being read by the Rev. J. W. McNamara. The bride was unattended and only immediate members of the families were present at the ceremony. The young couple left immediately following the ceremony for a motor trip to Miami. They will reside at Lake Worth.
