"The next twelve months will bring Journal readers eight new novels by eight favorite writers. They will appear in big installments, 15,000 to 25,000 words each month and each novel will be completed in not more than four months. You will get them in about this order: September, "The House of Broken Dreams" by Christine Jope Slade; October, "The Midlanders" by Booth Tarkington; later, among others, Zane Grey's "The Thundering Herd" and one of Joseph C. Lincoln's colorful Cape Cod stories. Eight novels at a minimum of $2.00 each would cost the reader $16.00—and they would have to wait a long time to get them because they won't be published in book form until they have appeared serially in The Home Journal."

$16.00 Worth of the Very Latest Fiction for only $1.80

You will pay ONLY 15 CENTS a MONTH for these eight new novels because they will appear in serial form in the next twelve numbers of THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. Among them will be the latest stories by Booth Tarkington, Zane Grey, George Weston, Joseph C. Lincoln and others. Just call 567 and one of my boys will start delivering The Home Journal to you beginning tomorrow.

MR. AND MRS. KUIST GIVEN RECEPTION

Former Highland Park Boy and His Bride Entertained; Notable Career

On Tuesday evening of this week Professor Howard Kuist and bride of New York City were given a reception by members of Ebenezer Evangelical church and other friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Norenberg on South Second street. A delightful program was given by the friends of the young people, this including an address by Rev. J. F. Van Evera, which elicited a very happy response from Mr. Kuist. The presence of a large assemblage gave evidence of the great esteem in which the young people are held.

Howard Kuist, as he is familiarly called by his Highland Park friends, was born here and educated in our public schools. Feeling the strong urge for a higher education and for the great possibilities for usefulness it might bring, he left Highland Park ten years ago, and, practically unaided financially, made his way up until today he has an honored position as instructor in Greek in the Biblical seminary in New York City. In 1917, Howard graduated from Western Union college at Le Mars, Ia., and in 1922 received the degree of Master of Arts in New York university. He is a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the same university. A thesis he submitted was awarded the prize of the New York University Philosophical society for the year 1921-22, and was published by the University. It was entitled "Is a Philosophy of History Worth While?" and was reviewed by Flint's History of the Philosophy of History. His record as a graduate student in the Biblical seminary in New York attracted the attention of the head of the institution, Dr. W. W. White, himself a noted Greek scholar, and led to Howard's rapid advancement. He now carries some of the teaching courses formerly conducted by Dr. White. In addition he offers each year one course in church history. The institution in which he teaches is interdenominational and its rapid growth in recent years has attracted a great deal of attention. His connection with this institution assures him a great field for usefulness.

The interest Howard's many friends in Highland Park have taken in his career has lately been enhanced by his fortunate marriage to a beautiful and talented young woman, Miss Leone Irene Marquis of Wooster, O. Miss Marquis, the daughter of a Presbyterian minister of many years' experience in Ohio, is a graduate of Wooster college. For a year or more she held an important church position as director of religious education, and then went on to the Biblical seminary in New York to prepare for work in the foreign field. It was as a student in one of his classes that she met Mr. Kuist and now she and Mr. Kuist will plan all future work together.

LEGION AUXILIARY PARTY IS SUCCESS

The card party given by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, at the Henry E. Mason home on the 21st, was a happy event throughout. There was an even hundred seated at the tables and 25 or more ladies chose to enjoy the company without the cards. Several donations were made by generous friends of the auxiliary to swell the sick and needy soldiers' fund. One donation of $100 came as a very pleasant surprise, and there were several $5.00 and $10.00 subscriptions.

Refreshments consisting of coffee and doughnuts were served, the doughnuts in particular coming in for loud praise.

The women of the auxiliary feel very grateful toward the business men of Highland Park for their help in making the party a success, as every thing from tables and chairs to coffee, prizes and napkins, was donated, thereby making the receipts almost all profit.
