OVERDRAFTS SHOWN IN COUNTY FUNDS

HOSPITAL DEFICIT LARGE

Disposition of Appropriations
During Year Reported to County Board; Those Overdrawn

The disposition of money appropriated by the county for various departments for the year ending Sept. 1, is shown in a statement made by the finance committee of the county board, and among the principal overdrafts are those for the county hospital and the poor.

The hospital funds are overdrawn $26,714. The hospital has been filled to overflowing for months, and extra cots recently had to be provided for taking care of several cases which would otherwise have had to be turned away. A plea will be made by the hospital committee for a more adequate amount for next year.

The cost of caring for the poor of the county has risen perceptibly, too. The North Shore industries have brought so many additional families to the county that in Waukegan and North Chicago especially the need has been great, there being numerous cases where heads of families became ill or other misfortunes developed.

Other departments in which there were overdrafts of large amounts, are:

July Warrants	$ 4,696.80
Cor. Jury Warrants	200.00
Foreign Witness	530.00
Ct. Reporter Fees	1,400.00
Coroner's Fees	516.00

Poor Claims	20,925.38

Birth & Death Certificates	55.00
Salaries	9,496.20
Stationery & Supplies	9,240.04
Miscel. Claims	8,962.45

The total deficits amount to $100,302.65, while the balance in some of the other funds totals $51,655.99, leaving a total deficit of slightly less than $49,000.

PUP STEALS PURSE
FULL OF CURRENCY

A brindle bulldog puppy with a propensity to carrying away everything within his reach last night was blamed for the mysterious disappearance of a purse containing $734 in cash belonging to Mrs. Eli Fisher, 2808 South Washington street, Peoria, Ill., Sunday afternoon when the cash and the purse was recovered from under the front porch of the Fisher home, where the dog had buried it.

The purse with the money was first missed by Mrs. Fisher after Sunday afternoon visitors had left the Fisher home. Mrs. Fisher had carried the money with her to the front porch and upon departure of the guests had left it lying on a chair. A frantic search Sunday failed to reveal a trace of the money.

Then came the thought that perhaps the puppy had taken the purse as he had often made away with shoes, shirts, and in fact, anything that came within his reach on previous occasions. Places where the dog was known to have deposited the spoils of former depredateurs were explored by members of the Fisher family.

Fears that the purse and the money, which consisted of 10 and 20 dollar bills, had been torn to shreds by the puppy, were dispelled when the purse and bills were found intact, buried beneath the front porch of the home. In the belief that the Sunday guests had been responsible for the disappearance of the money, the matter had been reported to police, and the investigation already under way, was brought to a halt last night.

It will be noted that this budget includes no cafeteria items as it is planned to be self-sustaining. It is hoped that under the able management of the new director, Miss Dorothy Brown, and her corps of faithful assistants, the cafeteria may soon become revenue producing for the association. During 1923 the cafeteria served 47,438 meals with an average check of 87 cents; Highland Park families, teachers, business men and many tourists avail themselves of the cafeteria service.

Much interest is being awakened among Highland Park women through this campaign. Many are offering to serve on teams and in other capacities. The lineup of the campaign executive committee is as follows:

- Committee Chairmen
Campaign chairman—Mrs. W. A. Alexander.
Associate—Mrs. Mary W. Searcy, general secretary.
Campaign director—Mrs. Wallis A. Sanford.
Chairman speakers' bureau—Mrs. Frank Pitt.
Chairman of publicity—Mrs. H. B. Roberts.
Chairman of luncheons—Mrs. L. R. Rigdon.
Chairman of hospitality—Miss Adele Everett.
Chairman of office and lists—Mrs. Fred Noerenberg.
Auditors—Mrs. Fred Clow, Miss Emma Holke.

The chairman of women's teams and her team captains and their 10 workers each will be announced later.

All workers will meet on Monday morning, Sept. 24, at campaign headquarters, 548 Central avenue, to receive instructions, materials and names of persons to be solicited. The plan of canvass is that of a selective card list, and not a house-to-house solicitation. All citizens however wishing to contribute may send money or checks to campaign headquarters if not called on in person.

It should be remembered that this is the only appeal made for funds exclusively in the interest of women and girls in this community. Everyone who believes in the worth of happy, healthy, intelligent girls to a community should give generously in this campaign.

Luncheons Daily
Luncheons will be served daily at 1 o'clock to all workers. At that time there will be speeches by Highland Park business men; also by prominent women of the community. Talks will be made on Sunday in local churches. Among the songs which will be sung will be "Raise the Coin," written by Mrs. George M. Seward. Reports of the teams will be given each day and recorded on a large chart which is being prepared by Mr. George M. Seward.

The slogan used in this campaign is being competed for at the high school, a prize of five dollars to be awarded to the student offering the best slogan.

Fact that a boy is too tired to attend Sunday school does not prove he will be unable to participate in a back yard ball game.
