the lecture course planned for this California, and Mrs. Genest's letter dition to the fire station to cost upland Park and the Woman's club, thus hoping to reach every member of the community.

Varied Program The lectures are planned to appeal. to the various interests of everyone. The theatre will be represented by Channing Pollock, on Friday evening, Nov. ninth. His subject will be "Personal Responsibility in the Theatre." The subject and date of the Dallas Lore Sharpe lecture cannot yet be announced, but it will be early in December, and will be a nature travelogue. Henry Turner Bailey, who has many friends and admirers in Highland Park, will be here on January Tenth and tell his ideas of "Education for Higher Citizenship." On January Twenty-fifth Arthur C. Pillsbury will bring his famous films showing the development of plant life in Yosemite National Park. Thus in the midst of winter we shall flowers unfolding before us. Elias Day, characterist, will provide an evening of good, clean fun sometime in March.

At Low Cost The nominal admission fee of two dollars for the course of five lectures is not at all commensurate with the high grade entertainment offered and it is hoped that an oversubscription will demonstrate to the mittee that the community appreciates what has been offered to them

The tickets will be in the hands of the members of the committee whom a complete list will be published next week.
