CIVIC LECTURE COURSE BEGINS FRIDAY, NOV. 9

well known lecturer and writer, on Tuesday evening, November 27. This lecture will be "The Approach to Nature."

On Thursday evening, January 10, Henry Turner Bailey, director of The Cleveland School of Art, will talk on "Education for Higher Citizenship." The place will be announced later but it is hoped that the lecture can be given at the new Lincoln school auditorium.

Two other lectures will complete the series: Arthur Pillsbury will give an illustrated lecture on "Flowers and Plants of the Yosemite Valley." Friday evening, January 25, and Elias Day, characterist and impersonator, will give an evening of fun on March 14. Mr. Day is president of the Lyceum Arts Conservatory, Chicago, and gives a unique and artistic evening of entertainment.

The whole idea of the movement for a civic lecture course is to unify the efforts of the various organizations and to give the best lectures obtainable, at a minimum amount of cost and duplication. It is not a money making scheme and if the plan succeeds beyond the expectations of the committee, the ticket holders will be given an additional lecture, gratis. Tickets for the course are two dollars. Single admission, fifty cents. The committee in charge of arrangements and tickets is composed of the following members:

Chairman—Mrs. W. C. Shippey.
Treasurer—Mrs. Charles Rubens.
Representing the Woman's club—Mrs. H. A. Luther, Mrs. R. E. Seyfarth, Mrs. Morton Traub, Mrs. B. A. Hamilton, Mrs. E. R. Phelps.
Representing the Lincoln school—Mrs. J. B. Garnett, Mrs. H. E. Wightman, Mrs. C. G. Wright.
Representing the Elm Place school—Mrs. F. D. Silber, Mrs. E. L. Millard, Mrs. Arthur Wood, Mrs. Moses Eisenstaedt, Mrs. Earl Fritsch, Mrs. George Jones, Mrs. Henry Breidert, Mrs. Oscar Larson, Mrs. George Childs, Mrs. Fred Noerenberg, Mrs. F. P. Boynton, Mrs. W. D. Mann, Miss Edna Grenoble, Mr. Jesse Smith, Mr. Sidney D. Morris.
Representing the high school—Mrs. Anson Morgan, Mrs. W. C. Rogers, and all local chairmen.
Representing the Ossoli club—Mrs. Carl Odell.
Representing the Young Men's club—Mr. Harry Eichler.

AUDITORIUM TO BE ERECTED AT ONCE

Entrance Through School
The entrance to the assembly room for the present will be through the new school building. Later, when the remainder of the auditorium structure is completed the regular entrances facing on Sheridan road will be built, with foyer and supplementary rooms as provided for in the plans.

$42,000 Now Pledged
General Wood, chairman of the executive committee of the Elm Place Auditorium association, reports that $42,000 has been pledged by two hundred subscribers, and that the remaining $8,000 will likely be secured within two weeks.

Labor of Love
The raising of this money has been a labor of love on the part of a few men and women in Highland Park who have had the welfare of Elm Place school at heart. It has taken a lot of time and effort. The practical way to appreciate that is to subscribe promptly and as generously as possible. It really is unfair to make difficulties and delays for busy men and women seeking subscriptions.

How any citizen of Highland Park able to subscribe would decline to do so, it is difficult to understand. Anyone familiar with the needs of the school knows how much the auditorium is needed, even more so now than last spring. And there is no other way to get it. The school board does not have the funds nor the tax ability to raise them.

Not Entertainment Alone
Some of our citizens have mistakenly assumed that the new auditorium is being built to entertain the school children. It has a far more serious purpose. Of course it will be admirably suited for public entertainment, both of the school children and their elders, and considerable revenue might be derived from renting it evenings. But that is merely a side issue. The real purpose of the auditorium is educational in the very best sense. It is going to be used just as the old one is now being used, for school assembly.

Parents who have attended the Monday morning assemblies of the Elm Place school KNOW how important a factor they are in the education of the children. They afford Mr. Smith, the superintendent, a fine opportunity of contact with the school as a whole under the most favorable conditions for influencing young lives to grow up into high minded and useful folks. The spirit of those meetings is quite the finest accomplishment of a school which has become famous as a moulder of child life.

Same Size as Original
A $50,000 structure will be built of the same size and design as the $75,000 building originally contemplated, but the interior will be plainer and the front part, containing the cloak and other smaller rooms, will be omitted for the time being. That can be added later.

The chief need is a large enough auditorium to seat the children for some years to come, and that will be provided by the revised plans.

The town and the school are to be congratulated. No better investment could be made in the future welfare of our community than providing an assembly room for the Elm Place school children. They are entitled to it. Mr. Smith and his teachers are entitled to it. Highland Park is entitled to it.

And Highland Park will get it. Its citizens will see to that.

ADDITIONAL LINCOLN SCHOOL NOTES
The eighth grade under the direction of Miss Goddard made a trip to the Indiana sand dunes last week. The trip was made by bus through the great steel and iron manufacturing district south of Chicago and gave the class an opportunity to see the importance of this great industry.

School was closed last Wednesday for the annual visiting day. Interesting reports were brought from various public and private schools along the North Shore including the Francis Parker school, Chicago, Evanston, Winnetka, Glencoe and Lake Forest.

This week the sixth and seventh grade boys are planning a trip to the steel mills, light house, and harbor at Waukegan, and the girls to the lace and candy factories at Zion City. These trips will be made under the supervision of Miss Goddard, Miss Boyce and Miss Paullin.

ART CLASSES FOR CHILDREN TO OPEN
Misses Williams and Norman of Art Institute in Charge
First Class Tuesday

A class in art for children will be held at the Elm Place school on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons throughout the winter beginning November 10, and is open to all children who want special instruction in that line. Miss Mable Williams and Miss Viola Norman both of the Art Institute will be teachers. The Saturday class at 1:30 will be for drawing and color work and the Tuesday class after school will be given over to modeling and pottery.

The aim of these classes is twofold: First, to give a systematic rudimentary training to those who have a natural talent for art and second to prepare children who are already somewhat proficient for later work in the Art Institute or other art schools.

Both Miss Williams and Miss Norman have had ample experience in teaching beginners and are especially equipped both artistically and temperamentally for this work.

On account of the importance of individual attention the size of the class will be limited. The course of ten weeks with one lesson a week will be $10 or with two lessons a week $15.

Parents and children interested are invited to meet Miss Williams and Miss Norman at Elm Place school on Tuesday, November sixth at four o'clock. Children should bring with them any materials they may have and a sample of their work so that Miss Williams can order what is needed and have them graded and ready for a lesson on Saturday, Nov. 10. For any further information call Mrs. George R. Jones, telephone 385.

RENEW EFFORTS TO EXTEND ROAD NORTH

proposed new road, and it is believed that the plan can be carried out successfully by the combined efforts of the several communities interested.

The route of the proposed pavement comes in from the direction of Half Day on Prairie avenue, Highland, turning northward along the Northwestern railroad and connecting with the Lake Forest pavement at the south end of Western avenue, affording a straight-away road between Highland Park to Lake Forest without crossing the two railways or going through the main street of Highland and Fort Sheridan.

Many Advantages
The many advantages of this route are realized by all the communities affected. Providing a route of this kind west of the railroads would eliminate dangers of motor accidents at crossings and viaducts, and the latter possibly would be still further avoided by widening of the street and lengthening the curves at the Bloom street viaduct. The new route would relieve Sheridan road of much heavy traffic and afford a shorter and direct means of transportation between the North Shore cities upon it.

The efforts of the officials of these communities to provide arrangements which will assure the construction of this much-needed highway will be watched with interest by the public in all this section of the North Shore.

ORPHANAGE RECEIVES SHARE OF PROFITS

The sum of $3,000 was raised for Lake Bluff Orphanage as a result of the Tag Day held recently along the North Shore. It was officially announced today. A very large amount was raised in Chicago, Evanston, Highland Park, Lake Forest, Waukegan and the other towns on the north shore for the Chicago Benefit League, of which the Lake Bluff orphanage, is a member, and received the $3,000 as its share.
