NEW TRAVEL BOOK
BY MRS. RINEHART

Famous Writer Tells of Experiences in "The Out Trail"; Her Latest Work

It is now a number of years since Mary Roberts Rinehart has given us a travel book, but The Out Trail makes up in interest, excitement and fun for the interval of waiting. The seven parts relate Mrs. Rinehart's adventures camping out with the men of her family in all parts of the West and in Mexico. There is also a colorful description of houseboating and fishing in Florida.

The charm of the book is in the personality of the author, completely expressed in the opening pages of "Roughing It With The Men," where Mrs. Rinehart says:

"No woman ever really knows a man until she has camped with him; watched him shave out of doors with the wind blowing his mirror about; seen his reaction to a month of fried food; learned his mental condition when his tobacco is running low—a situation which always reveals a certain avarice; his waking attitude after a night on the ground; and his tolerance or intolerance of mosquitoes, black flies, no-see-ems, and other wild life in the wilderness. . . ."

"I have roughed it with men in one wilderness after another, in camp and on the trail, in the air and on the water, in war abroad and in peace at home. A follower and not a leader, I have been scared to death more times than I can remember. I hate high places, bugs, airplanes, and canned food. Led by the exigencies of my profession, by feminine curiosity, or by the determination not to be left at home, I have been shaken, thrown, bitten, sunburned, rained on, shot at, stone-bruised, frozen, boiled, scared, with monotonous regularity."

SEEKING HOME FOR ILLINOIS ORPHANS

For many families in Illinois the Thanksgiving season is a time of home coming and family reunions. For many of the homeless children in the care of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society it is a period of special sadness because of their great hunger for the home life which has been denied them. Bereft of their own parents they desire more than anything else a place in a family home.

The society is in special need of homes for boys from seven to twelve years of age. Address Illinois Children's Home and Aid society, 308 No. Michigan Blvd., Chicago.
