DEERFIELD NEWS
Deerfield Parent-Teacher Assn. Elects Officers

Mrs. John A. Stryker was unanimously elected president of the Deerfield Grammar School Parent-Teacher, Friday afternoon, to succeed Mrs. Oscar Beecham who is moving to Florida. Mrs. Stryker is a very capable woman and has been in the association since its organization years ago. Last year she represented the Elm Place Grammar School P. T. A., the Deerfield-Shields P. T. A. and the local Grammar School association at the state conference at Decatur. Mrs. W. W. Clark, the vice-president, a very efficient and charming woman felt that her health would not permit her to accept the nomination, and at the previous meeting had appointed Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., Mrs. S. P. Hutchison and Mrs. Alex Willman as the nominating committee. Mrs. Reichelt, in making the report of her committee told the numerous things the association had accomplished and of the things which the P. T. A. represented, and that the Deerfield Grammar School P. T. A. was the first association organized in Lake County. She stated that in looking around for a leader, they had selected a woman who had been in the association since its organization, that this woman had been a faithful worker and had represented them at conventions. Mrs. Reichelt asked for nominations from the floor, but none were given, so Mrs. Stryker was unanimously elected as president.

Mrs. Clark presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Robert E. Pettis acted as secretary pro tem. Five tables were secured for reference books for the teachers through the efforts of Mesdames J. A. Stryker, Alex Willman and Edward Segert.

The company has been furnishing thirty bottles free, every day which is almost half of the entire amount delivered to the school daily.

The association voted to give a farewell reception to the former president, Mrs. Oscar Beechman, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Galloway, and Mesdames A. R. Warner, S. P. Hutchison and E. B. Jordan were appointed for the reception committee to assist Mrs. Galloway.
