"RED ROBE" TO BE NEXT GUILD PLAY

Drama of French Judiciary to Be Presented by North Shore Actors

A carefully selected cast from the North Shore Theatre Guild players is now in rehearsal on "The Red Robe," an Eugene Brieux production, which is to be staged in the various north shore communities during the week of January 25. It will be given at Kenilworth, Jan. 25; Winnetka, Jan. 26 and 28; Lake Forest, Jan. 29; Evanston, Jan. 30.

The story is built around the aspirations of two lawyers who are ambitious to achieve the Red Robe, the highest honor accorded a man in the judicial system of France. It reeks with intrigue and permits Monsieur Brieux, who, incidentally, is the author of "Damaged Goods," full sway to employ "every weapon in his armory of satire."
