ARMOUR AND COMPANY will start construction within two weeks on a $50,000 addition to their present meat base in Waukegan to better supply Lake county and surrounding territory, according to reports from that city. A report was circulated in Waukegan last week that the Riverview Park Association of Chicago had purchased a large tract of land along the shore of Lake Michigan, north of Zion City and Winthrop Harbor, for the purpose of promoting an amusement enterprise similar to the one it now operates at Riverview Park, Chicago.

STREATORVILLE LOSES HOCKEY GAME HERE Score 2-1 in Favor of Exmoor; Gurnee Victim for Next Sunday

STREATORVILLE LOSES Playing the same high grade hockey they have during the past couple of weeks the Highland Park hockey team defeated the champion Streatorville team 2 to 1 at the Exmoor rink last Sunday morning. This is the first defeat suffered this year by Streatorville who have been leading the league. Last year Streatorville won the championship losing only one game and that to Highland Park. The Highland Park team work on Sunday was exceptionally good, Corwith, Palmer and Hubbard working well together on the forward line. Mal Vail played his usual good game at goal and was well supported by Cobb and Knox at defense.

The first period was all Highland Park's and it was due entirely to the excellent goal guarding of Daniel, the Streatorville goal, that Highland Park was held to one score in that period, a pretty shot by "Chap" Palmer. Right at the start of the second period "Freddie" Hubbard made Highland Park's second score on a long shot from the center of the rink. During the remainder of the game Streatorville fought hard to avert defeat but was only able to score once in the last period. Lyle Ritchie got the last period. Lyle Ritchie got the score after taking a pass from his brother Bill. The Highland Park team lined up with "Mal" Vail goal, "Boola" Cobb and "Ed" Knox defense, "Chap" Palmer, center and "Nat" Corwith, "Gene" de Bronkhart, Tom Dean, and Freddie Hubbard, wings. Next Sunday at 11 a. m. the Highland Park team will meet Gurnee at the Exmoor rink.
