SOUL INSURANCE

Those who attended the funeral of Michael A. Farmer at the Immaculate Conception church Tuesday morning could not but have been impressed with one statement made by Doctor O'Neill in the course of his excellent sermon in which he spoke of the exemplary life and christian character of the unfortunate young man whose interests were not all worldly, but who, while by industry and intelligence sought to make material success, also gave due attention to spiritual things and was a faithful member of this church. In this connection Dr. O'Neill noted that too often in case of a death friends are too much interested in material things; they want to know "Is his life insured" and things like that, whereas, the doctor declared, the important thing is "Was his soul insured?" It seems to us that in this Dr. O'Neill expressed the whole substance of the great problem of life. We are here but for a space and we pass this way but once. The important thing is not what route we take, nor how much of worldly goods we accumulate on the way; the principal thing is our destination, where we are going, and if we are making proper preparations to insure safe arrival. Soul insurance, as Dr. O'Neill says, is the important thing. If we are laying up treasures in Heaven where moth and rust do not corrupt nor thieves break through and steal, it matters little what we leave behind when the call comes to us to cross over to the bourne from which no traveler ever returned.

FIRST P. T. A. CELEBRATES

Parent-Teacher association members will be interested in the fact that the Lynn, Mass., P. T. A., which claims to be the first organized in the United States, recently held its twenty-eighth anniversary by giving a dinner at the school hall, at which 250 members and many guests were present, including city officials and leaders of the parent-teacher association movement in the State. The mayor and the city superintendent of public schools, as well as the president of the Massachusetts Parent-Teacher association and a past president of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' association were speakers.

EDUCATION IN ALASKA

Interest in education is rapidly increasing even in the far northern regions of Alaska, as evidenced by the fact that the city of Ketchikan, one of the towns in the fishing and lumber district has voted to issue $50,000 additional bonds for the purpose of erecting a modern school building. The $100,000 bond issue previously voted was found to be inadequate to provide as large a building as was needed. The city now has, therefore, $150,000 available for school building. The population is fewer than 2,000 and is made up principally of miners, fishermen, and lumbermen.

Good Friday and Easter Services. About 450 people partook of the Lord's supper Good Friday and Easter Sunday. The new communion set, which was a gift from the Ladies' Aid was dedicated on Good Friday. On Easter morning the altar was covered with Easter lilies, carnations and hyacinths. The church was filled at both these Holy Days and every one is asked to come every Sunday morning and to try to get into the good habit of attending church regularly and enjoy the wonderful teachings of the Holy Bible.

The Aid had some beautiful rugs made which they are sending to the home in Bensonville. Various plans were made for the conference which will be held here from May 25th to 28th. Every one is asked to cheerfully respond when called upon. If you wish to offer your services in any way, call on Mrs. L. Borchardt, and she will be very glad for your offer. Reunion of Confirmants. The reunion services which were held at St. Peter's Evang. Church Palm Sunday was very well attended. After the Roll call of all the confirmation classes from the year 1853, the honors were given to the classes of the years 1889, 1895 and 1923, responding with 5 - 8 and 17 members. Many were absent, on account of moving away and a great many had been called to that great beyond. A quartette, consisting of Mrs. E. Griese and Mrs. L. Borchardt and Messrs. A. Holste and L. Borchardt, sang the appropriate song, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder I'll be There", which added to the beautiful services. Mrs. E. L. Griese also rendered a solo that was well appreciated. The mixed choir was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations. A splendid address by Rev. Bizer, taken from Hebrew 2-1st was very impressive. A great many of the visitors came from Highland Park, Wilmette, Evanston and Chicago.
