DEERFIELD NEWS

Because of the stormy weather on Friday, the Community Planting at the Deerfield Grammar School was postponed until the first pleasant day of this week which was on Monday at which time the program was given. The Boy Scouts, under Mr. Elmer Clavey's supervision, planted all the trees and shrubbery on Friday. Six Lombardy Poplar trees to the west of the school building will do much toward dignifying the appearance of the grounds.

John A. Reichelt, Sr., was struck by an automobile, Friday, in Chicago. He was knocked unconscious and rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where identification was made. From there he was removed to his home in Wilmette. Mr. Reichelt's head and one side are badly bruised, but no bones were broken.

The Masonic Hall is in use a good many of the evenings each week. The Masons meet there every Tuesday evening, the Modern Woodmen have their meetings there on the evenings of the first and third Wednesdays of the month and on the second and fourth Thursday evenings of each month the Royal Neighbors meet there.

The Lencioni confectionery store in the Stryker building is now open. Miss Harriet and Amelia Gastfield of Evanston spent last Sunday at the home of their mother, Mrs. William Gastfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dye of Chicago were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holdgraf, last week.

The Deerfield Mens' Club will meet Thursday evening, May 1, at the Masonic Hall, Sherman Booth will speak on "Paris."

C. F. Thierbach, the grocer, and Shell and Co. Dry Goods, who are successors to the Deerfield Mercantile Co. of which Theodore Weiss and Robert Freebus were owners, are having the large building divided into two separate stores by a partition running north and south through the center of the store. The center display window on the south side of the building will be made into an entrance for the Dry Goods Department.

Miss Frances Loy visited her parents, near New Bremer, Ohio, last week.

Albert E. Mitchell of east Deerfield road is exhibiting dogs in Michigan and Indiana.

The Dinna Pet Club was entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gunckel, have moved from the Deer Lick Farm cottage to the house recently vacated by the Landau family.

The Wilmet School Progressive Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. J. Johnson.

The Lake County Guernsey Association will meet May 8 at 8 p. m. in the office of the Farm Bureau at Libertyville.

Mrs. Earl Varner had as her guests last week her sisters Misses Larson from the Central part of Illinois.

Mrs. William Clark was hostess to the Just So Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horenberger and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Klomp visited Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bent of Chicago, last Sunday.

There were twenty-six tables of bridge, five hundred and bunco at the Garden Club party, Wednesday evening, at the Masonic Hall. The prizes were all donated by the local merchants.

The selection of prizes by the lucky winners caused much merriment.

Mrs. Eugene Ender was hostess to the Five Hundred Club, Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Madeline Heap of Menooka, Illinois who teaches in Park Ridge was the guest of Mrs. C. T. Anderson over the weekend.

The last concert of the series, will be given Sunday afternoon, May 4, at the new Elm Place Auditorium in Highland Park, by the Civic Orchestra of Chicago, under the personal direction of Mr. Brederick Stock. All in this community are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson entertained at dinner on Thursday evening for Miss Eleanor Meyer and her guest Miss Mildred Knickerbocker of Chicago.

About one hundred and thirty five people attended the Dorcas supper, last Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Newcomb entertained the members of the Civic Committee of the Garden Club of Deerfield and their husbands at bridge on Saturday evening, at their home on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Sheldon entertained Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and daughter from Chicago, last Sunday.

Mrs. E. H. Willman attended an O. E. S. Banquet at the Central Music Temple in Chicago last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wessling, Arthur Merrier, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz and Miss Miriam Stryker attended the commencement exercises of the McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago, Thursday evening.

Rev. V. E. Stakeholder, pastor of the Evangelical Bungalow Church was one of the graduates.

Mrs. Forest J. Kepler (Jean McCormick) of Marquette, Mich. was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Robert E. Pettis, the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hill of Chicago, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Willman.

Miss Agnes Peterson had as her guest several days of last week, Miss Minnie Tommerman, who is attending school in Milwaukee.

Four members of the Ku Klux Klan, in their masks, entered the Bungalow Church Sunday evening and gave a sum of money to Rev. Stakeholder, because of his efficient work. Their appearance was made during the services.

Saturday afternoon April 26 Miss Esther Huehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Huehl, became the bride of Mr. Elmer Schmidt of Chicago, in the presence of friends and relatives, at the St. Pauls Evangelical Church of Deerfield. Rev. J. Holdgraf read the service.

Ferns and palms surrounded and covered the altar before which the bridal party gathered. The house was made very beautiful with its pretty rainbow decorations.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the brides parents for the immediate families. Miss Barbara Huehl and Ewald Winter entertained the guests with several vocal duets and solos.

The brides gown was fashioned of white satin with beaded white Georgelette. The plain tulle veil was caught to her head with wax orange blossoms and fell slightly below the dress. The veil had been worn by the brides mother and sister. She carried a shower bouquet of silvery white roses and lilies of the Valley.

Miss Barbara Huehl, the younger sister, who acted as maid of honor, wore a frock of draped cream colored satin and carried a huge bouquet of American Beauties and Ferns.

Mr. Arthur Schmidt of Chicago acted as best man.

Little Ruth Soalfrank, the groom's niece, as flowergirl was attired in a beautiful frock of orchid Georgelette and carried a basket of tiny, pink roses.

Mrs. Douglas Dye of Chicago who played Lohengrens Bride Chorus also accompanied Mr. Ewald Winter, a friend of the young couple, who sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The couple left in a machine for a short trip after which they will be at home to their friends in Deerfield.

STUDENT ATHLETE'S DEATH IS DEPLORED

Edward Bolan, High School Senior Passes Away; Funeral Held Monday

Deerfield-Shields high school students are mourning the loss of a member of the senior class, Edward Bolan, whose death occurred last weekend at his home in Lake Forest. He was born in 1906 and entered the high school in 1921. He was especially interested in athletics and hoped to qualify himself for a course in coaching.

In the suburban league he held the championship in the shot-put and had distinguished himself in high school athletics generally. He was highly regarded by both faculty and students. At the funeral held Monday the school was represented by Principal Sandwick and other faculty members; the "D" club, of which Eddie was a member, attended in a body, and many other students were present.

CAR FOUND BEFORE OWNER MISSED IT

Judge Smith's Auto Stolen Tuesday night; Chicago Police Arrest Thieves

Judge A. E. Smith's auto was stolen Tuesday night, and four negroes were arrested with it in Chicago before the judge discovered it was missing. The car was standing in front of his new home in Glencoe avenue Tuesday night. About 3 a. m. Chicago police called the judge and notified him they had it. It was all news to him, as he thought it was still "out in front." The alleged thieves were to be returned here today. The car was recovered, and the judge says that was "fast work."

BUS LINES SEEKING OPERATION PERMITS

FROM ILL. COMMERCE BODY

Popularity of This Service is Shown by Numerous Applicants Before This Commission

Applicants for authority to operate motor bus lines over the new concrete roads of southern Illinois were given hearing before the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield last week. In some cases protests against the establishment of bus lines were made by railroads and in others rival bus companies were seeking the same route.

The Harrisburg-Dorrisville Bus Line, Inc., presented its application for a certificate of convenience and necessity to operate between Harrisburg and Marion, Harrisburg and Eldorado and Harrisburg and Carrier Hills. Intervening petitions were filed by the Southern Illinois Railway and Power Company for authority to operate vehicles over the same routes.

A hearing was scheduled on the application of the Southern Illinois Transportation Company for a certificate of convenience and necessity to operate motor vehicles between Harrisburg and Carmi; between Harrisburg and Shawneetown; between Harrisburg and Elizabethtown and Golconda; between Harrisburg and Vienna, and between Harrisburg and Marion.

The Saline County Motor and Transportation Company was to be heard from on its application for authority to operate a bus line from Carrier Mills through Harrisburg to Eldorado, and from Harrisburg to Big Creek Coals, Inc., mines 3 and 4.

The Egyptian Transportation System Inc., had its name in the pot for an application for authority to operate busses between Metropolis and Mt. Carmel; Harrisburg and Shawneetown; Johnston City and Mt. Vernon; Carmi and Duquoin; Mt. Vernon and Mascoutah; Carbondale and Centralia; Harrisburg, Golconda and Elizabethtown.

The Egyptian Transportation Company was asking a certificate of convenience and necessity to operate busses between Johnston City and Herrin.

Authority to operate busses in West Frankfort and from Herrin via Johnston City and West Frankfort to Benton was asked by the Shires Transportation Company.

The Murphysboro and Southern Illinois Railway Company asked to be permitted to operate busses from Carbondale to Herrin. Protests against this application was made by the Coal Belt Electric Railway Company and the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co.
