BEGIN ANNUAL SALE OF RAVINIA TICKETS

Highland Park Committee Start Work of Selling Coupon Books Here

The Highland Park committee in charge of the canvass in this city for the sale of Ravinia Park coupon books for the season were charmingly entertained at luncheon Tuesday by the chairman, Mrs. George Lytton, and the work in hand was carefully outlined and plans made for carrying out the canvass.

Ten Districts

The city has been districted into ten divisions and a house-to-house canvass will be made, and it is hoped that everyone will greet the solicitors pleasantly and subscribe liberally. It is hoped that at least one book may be sold in every home visited. As shown by advance announcements of the program for this season at Ravinia, opening June 21 and continuing to Labor day, the repertoire promises to exceed in brilliancy that of any previous year and the list of artists includes practically all of the favorites of previous years, as well as several new ones with world-wide reputations as songsters.

Nowhere is the value of Ravinia and its influence as a cultural factor in the communities of the North Shore better realized than in Highland Park, and it is believed that the splendid support afforded by this city in previous years will be continued and increased this season through the efforts of the committee engaged in this canvass.

Coupon Books Saying

Special emphasis is given the fact that this year for the first time there is possible a saving in purchasing the tickets in book form over the price of the single admission tickets, and it is believed that this will prove an incentive to many to secure the coupon books in advance.

The splendid success in Highland Park last year in the sale of these coupons, which far exceeded that of previous years, was so gratifying that the members of the committee are looking forward to the work this season with a great deal of pleasure, confident of still greater success in this canvass.

Liberal Response Urged

With the enthusiasm which the committee members are manifesting in this good cause and the businesslike manner in which the campaign is being planned augurs well for splendid results. Highland Park people are urged to give this committee their hearty and liberal support. Leave the hatching out for this committee; give them a cordial welcome and buy generously of the coupon books so that among the North Shore communities Highland Park may again this season maintain its leadership in the support of this peculiarly North Shore enterprise.

OPEN HOUSE PLANS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Open House Will Have Additional Attractions This Year, Urbana

This year's "Open House" at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, June 16 to 21, will be marked by several new additions to the list of attractions which annually bring thousands of farmers and their wives here to see points of interest and get in touch with the progress of the work being done in the feed lots, laboratories and experimental plots of the institution in the interests of better farming. Among the new attractions which guides will point out to sightseers and visitors during the tour over the thousand acres of the college plant and farm will be the new horticultural field laboratory operating at practically full capacity, the completed new agricultural building housing the administrative offices and class rooms of the college, the new imported Forcherson sire which heads the college band of mares, a new gas engine laboratory and the new poultry plant which will be in the process of expansion and remodeling. Numerous other attractions around the college which have held the attention and interest of farmers year after year also will have their full share of time on the itinerary of the trip.

Approximately seven miles are traveled in making the route over the college grounds to the main points of interest. Visiting farmers and their wives are divided into groups and the trip made in automobile under the direction of guides who are well acquainted with the various attractions and different lines of work.

The old agricultural building is still made the starting point of the college offices and a commercial dairy plant where milk is handled and butter, ice cream, condensed milk, cheese and cultured buttermilk drinks are manufactured.

ZION GIRL WINNER OF ESSAY CONTEST

Mary Elizabeth Judd, 2912 Enoch avenue, Zion, a 16 year old student at the Waukegan township high school, is the Lake county winner in the national prize essay contest for young women between the ages of 13 and 19 years. The award was made Tuesday night at Waukegan after three judges had passed upon all essays submitted to Secretary E. H. Clifford of the Chamber of Commerce, Lake County chairman in the essay contest.

The subject on which the essays were written was: "Why a Young Man I Know Should Attend a Citizen's Military Training Camp." The contest is sponsored by the Women's Overseas Service League.

Miss Judd, as county winner, is eligible to compete for the state prize which is a free trip for herself and mother to and from Camp Custer. The trip will be so arranged that the prize winner will be present in Camp Custer the day of the Great Review, near the end of the camp.

Winners of state prizes may compete in the national contest. The three young women in the United States who submit the best essays will receive a free trip to Washington, D. C.

Several of the essays submitted possessed unusual merit. This is especially true of that written by Miss Mildred L. Colby of Center street, Waukegan, a 15 year old Waukegan high school girl. The judges gave her essay honorable mention. The judges were Albert E. Jack and Wayne T. Stupey of Waukegan, and K. V. Bollinger of the North Shore Country Day school, a private institution at Winnetka. Capt. Robt. F. Dark, in charge of military training at the high school assisted and acted in an advisory capacity, but took no part in the actual work of judging.
