NORTHBROOK

Mrs. Murner and children visited with Mrs. Johnson Friday.

The play entitled "Miss Perkins Last Engagement or The Old District School No. 2," given in Glenview a couple of weeks ago will be given in the Northbrook school hall Thursday, June 26. The proceeds of the play will be equally divided between Northbrook and Glenview Presbyterian Congregational churches. The play given twice in Glenview was a big success and we are sure will be much appreciated here.

Monday morning at 3:30 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kiest were awakened by a party of tourists who had run into the ditch across from the school house on the Wauekan road. They were Mr. and Mrs. Wolski and baby all severely cut and bruised. Dr. Becker gave them first aid at the Kiest home and Mrs. Wolski's mother and sister with their family doctor all of Chicago came out and took them back to Chicago to a hospital. Mr. Sans took the wrecked car to his garage for repairs. The bright lights on a car coming toward them blinding Mr. Wolski caused the accident. The wrecked car was an Essex.

The Misses Lillian and Dorothy Antes visited their aunt Mrs. Edna Kiest Sunday.

The Misses Mildred Landwehr and Mildred Melzer visited Mrs. Barry Sunday.

The Ladies Aid met at the Presbyterian church Wednesday. The Aid is steadily increasing its membership and a splendid work is done by the ladies.

Many of the congressmen have qualified to be given the degree of D. B. P., which is Doctor of Buck Passing.

EDITORIAL

When a man needs money and wants it in a hurry, he's willing to make a few sacrifices to get it.

I admit that's just where I stand. A cold Spring season was the cause—and the result is that I'm jammed to the ceiling with a breathtaking stock of magnificent Spring and Summer Woolens. And every day shipments of new Fall goods are arriving. They've got to be paid for, and it's no secret—I NEED THE MONEY.

Every piece of these beautiful Spring Woolens must be sold at once. The absolute truth is that they are genuine $80, $85 and $90 fabrics, but my price is only $35. For that amount you will get a perfect fitting suit—made to order—with Extra Pants Free.
