Assembly Dances Every Thursday Evening; Music by Duffy's Orchestra

The Highland Park Woman's club will continue the Assembly dances each Thursday evening at nine o'clock in the club auditorium. The auditorium is splendidly ventilated and the large double French doors prove a remarkable asset in keeping the auditorium delightfully cool.

The patrons and patronesses for this evening are: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Netcher, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiprichs, Mrs. John Croke and Mr. A. R. Croke.

The Emmett Duffy orchestra furnishes splendid music and the dances are most popular with the young people of the town and vicinity. Tickets may be procured at the door.

The Assembly dance held on the evening of July 3rd was a benefit for the Boat House and Life Saving station of the Young Men's club and through the generous response of members of the Woman's club and the many friends who responded, it was possible after paying the necessary expenses to turn over to the Young Men's club the amount of one hundred and twenty five dollars and twenty five cents. Returns from the tickets sold by the members of the Young Men's club are not all in at the present time. It is hoped it will amount to another hundred. The Young Men's club express thanks and appreciation for the generous help in their work.

In spite of all the slammung that Congress has got, many generous patriots have signified willingness to serve in that body.

On the theory of the survival of the fittest, it seems probable that those of the present generation who succeed in jumping out of the way of automobiles will have very powerful hind legs.

The "favorite sons" win much attention at the political conventions which may be all right so long as they don't get to chasing after the favorite daughters.
