SUDDEN DEATH OF N. S. LINE EMPLOYEE

John Franzen of Waukegan Is Victim of Heart Trouble; Dies in Waukegan

John Franzen, a former Waukegan policeman, but of late employed by the North Shore Line at Highland Park, died suddenly Saturday in Waukegan, under circumstances which made it necessary to call a coroner's inquest. The verdict was that death was due to heart trouble.

Waukegan police received a telephone call Saturday morning at seven-thirty o'clock that a man was lying on the sidewalk at South avenue and Oak street. He was removed to the police station. Officers perceived at once that the victim was very ill and summoned a physician. In the meantime policemen worked over him, but in spite of their efforts he died shortly before the arrival of the physician.

A passbook on the North Shore Line, together with letters found in his pocket identified the victim as Franzen.

The body was removed to undertaking rooms where the inquest was held. Police were sent to the Franzen home in Waukegan to notify the widow of her husband's sudden demise.

According to Mrs. Franzen her husband had not been ill of late. This morning when he left for work at seven o'clock he complained of a pain over his eyes but otherwise appeared to be all right. Mrs. Franzen packed his lunch bucket and bade him goodbye. It was the last time she saw him alive.

LAKE BLUFF MAN IS ELECTROCUTED

A. Gehris, Sub-Station Worker, Dies From Contact With Heavy Charge

Arnold Gehris, aged 34, who lived in a cottage by the Public Service Station No. 87, near Lake Bluff, died at the Victory Memorial hospital at 3 o'clock Saturday morning from burns and shock following his falling against a rod carrying 33,000 volts.

His right arm touched the charged rod and the current carried through his body and grounded through his feet. Witnesses declared that the shoes were burned from his feet.

Gehris was rushed to the hospital where doctors administered aid. His condition, a few hours after the accident was reported as favorable, but shortly before midnight he began to lose strength.

From what can be learned the man was stenciling what is termed a "bus-bar." Apparently he slipped, his right arm coming in contact with a lightning arrester hood, which carried the charge.

His wife, who was in the cottage, rushed for aid and flagged a Libertyville division car of the North Shore. Motorman Harry Renner, a member of the company first aid team, used artificial respiration methods and restored Gehris to consciousness before outside aid arrived. He was rushed to a hospital and later suffered a relapse.

The inquest was held Saturday afternoon, and a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Besides his wife and a 11-year-old son he leaves his father and mother, two brothers, Theodore, who lived with him; and Herman, of Waukegan; and four sisters, Mrs. Martha Hanselmann, Milwaukee; Mrs. Minnie Rose, Forest Park; Mrs. Elsie Spiegel, Elgin; Mrs. Lydia Burrow of Platte, Wis.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon and burial was in the North Shore cemetery.

Five years ago we were going to kick drummers for German goods out of this country, but now we are going to lend the Germans $100,000,000.

The politicians are longing for the time when they can collect taxes from the people without having to give them either.

As Good as a Visit

JUST as good as a visit is a three minute station-to-station telephone call.

Evening, and you are away. You picture mother and father in the living room at home. The glow of the light shines on mother's soft gray hair and father's glasses. Mother is darning stockings.

Father is reading the evening paper. At intervals he repeats some bit of news or a joke to mother. If you could only be with them for just a few minutes!

You can, and for a small sum. Go to the telephone and ask Long Distance for your home telephone number. In a few minutes you will hear mother's voice and father's greeting. Let "Long Distance" take you home for a visit.
