To a dear devoted mother: Who passed away Sept. 27, 1934. Mrs. John Sheridan, Highland Park, Ill. In all her time of suffering, of agony and pain. She had a smile of greeting, without a thot of pain; She thot of those around her, so far, and yet so near. Not thinking that the hands of death were creeping, near and near. She bade good-bye to no one, Her tired eyes closed in sleep. She has gone to join the angels. In heaven, no more to weep. From one who loved her dearly, Edith Andres, Chicago, Ill.
