WOMEN ARE URGED TO VOTE NOVEMBER 4

The Legislative Committee of the Highland Park Woman's Club requests every member of the club to vote on November 4.

Woman has obtained her hard-earned privilege of franchise and she should use it.

In the United States there will be 7,376,063 new voters in the presidential election. Not all of them have decided at this late hour, how they will vote.

The stay-at-home vote of 1920 totaled 25,705,063, some of whom have not since acquired any responsibility of citizenship.

The radicals will vote, the conservatives should do so.

DORCAS SOCIETY TO HOLD BAZAAR NOV. 19

On Wednesday, Nov. 19, the Dorcas society of the Highland Park Presbyterian church will hold a very beautiful bazaar in the parish house. It is to be given early in the month in order to avoid the very many obligations around Thanksgiving which housekeepers have to meet, and then to help with the Christmas shopping. The bazaar will have many beautiful and unusual things for sale and the committee has made a determined effort not to have the prices too high. At this time an attempt to tell you all that you will find at this bazaar will not be made, but a little later some idea will be given. Even then you will be surprised and delighted at the display.

H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB BEGINS YEAR'S WORK

First Session in New Home of Organization Tuesday of This Week

The Highland Park Woman's club held its first meeting of the year on Tuesday, October 21st. A cafeteria luncheon was served by the house committee followed by a business session and program to a responsive audience of three hundred members and guests.

This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Woman's club, and it is fitting that the organization should at last be housed in its own home. In her first words of greeting, the president expressed the aim of the organization for greater service to the community at large. Plans for the year were outlined and announcement made again of the study class in current events under the leadership of Mr. R. E. Pattison-Kline, to meet on alternate Thursday mornings at ten thirty o'clock at the club house beginning this week Oct. 23rd. This course of five lectures is open to the public for a small fee.

The finance chairman announced plans for her committee for the coming year, and the music committee chairman, Mrs. Arthur Byfield who is also chairman of the Highland Park Civic Music association announced the splendid series of concerts for all to be held on Sunday afternoons once a month at Elm Place Auditorium. The series planned this year is one of the finest offered to any community outside of a large city. It is brought to us to enjoy right here at Elm Place.

After these announcements the program of the day, a lecture-recital on the song literature of Italy was given by Prof. and Mrs. Ferdinand Schevill of the University of Chicago. Prof. Schevill gave a scholarly lecture on the history and evolution of musical forms in Italy, colored by Mrs. Schevill's delightful singing of a program which included a first group of 17th century numbers, a second group of folk songs, also a very old and a third group of very modern Italian art songs. The last group included three Shakespeare songs set to music by a modern Italian composer. Mrs. Schevill's voice is one of the loveliest we have heard in this community and it was gratifying to bring her before a large responsive audience.

The enthusiasm and interest manifested in the day's program was an auspicious opening for the new club year. The patronesses are: Mrs. Wilford Shipnes, Mrs. William Monroe Wright, Mrs. Albert J. Metzel, Mrs. C. N. Kimball, Mrs. George M. Bard, Mrs. John M. Whanless, Mrs. Chas. Rubens, Mrs. Ross J. Beatty, Mrs. J. McGregor Adams, Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mrs. Charles A. Winston, Mrs. Annette R. Jones, Mrs. George Allen Mason, Mrs. Frederick A. Watkins.

SCORES MADOO'S STATEMENTS HERE

MR. BALDWIN TAKES ISSUE

Declares "Progressive" Speakers Statements at Elm Place School Misleading and Abusive

The two following letters from Mr. W. W. Baldwin, a well-known resident of Highland Park and Chicago business man of wide experience in the matters of which he writes, will be read with interest. They speak for themselves, as follows:

First Letter
Chicago, Oct. 20, 1924.
Editor, Highland Park Press, Highland Park, Ill.

Dear Sir:
I suppose you will have a laudatory account of the McAdoo meeting Sunday afternoon, and in that connection I respectfully ask you to publish the enclosed comment which I have personally signed.

I take the liberty also of handing you some remarks of mine that appeared in the Congressional Record upon the subject of Railroad Land Grants. I had charge of closing out three important land grants, and therefore have some personal knowledge upon the subject, which this McAdoo evidently is devoid of.

Yours very truly,
W. W. BALDWIN.
(Enc.)

Second Letter
Editor, Highland Park Press,
Dear Sir:

I was one of seventy-eight people who listened to a long-winded harangue at the Elm Place Auditorium Sunday afternoon by Mr. Malcolm McAdoo, whose claim to distinction was said to be that he is a brother of William G. McAdoo, the Ku Klux candidate for nomination to the Presidency by the Democratic National Convention recently held in New York, which selected Hon. John W. Davis as its Standard Bearer.

I use the word "harangue" advisedly, because I have seldom listened to a prepared speech that contained more abuse and vituperation. His attacks included by name Chief Justice Taft, Secretary Hoover, Senator Cummins of Iowa, Hon. James C. Davis, director general of the railroads, Senator Oscar Underwood, who denounced the Ku Klux Klan by name in the New York Convention, Secretary Mellon, Representative Eash of Wisconsin, President Coolidge, the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Hon. John W. Davis, and practically every man of standing and influence in this country.

RAVINIA GROCERY STORE IS ROBBED

Burglar Gets Entrance Through Basement Window; Gets $20; Other Attempts

Boettcher's grocery store at Ravinia was burglarized some time on Tuesday night, when a robber entered through a basement window, scrambled over a bin full of coal and reached the shop by the basement stair, the door at the top of which was not locked. About $20 was taken from the cash register, the police were told. Nothing else was molested in the store. The police believe that there is a systematic till-tapping campaign in progress on the North Shore. A week or so ago the A. & P. store was entered and also another store in the neighborhood, they report, and this week an attempt was made of similar character at Highwood.

GIVE PLAY NOVEMBER 6 AT H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB

N. S. Theatre Guild Presents "The Enchanted Cottage"; Local Woman in Cast

"The Enchanted Cottage," which the North Shore Theatre Guild is producing in Highland Park on Nov. 7 has the most elaborate scenic and lighting effects which any production along the North Shore has ever shown.

George Tukerg, a young Russian, has designed the scenery and supervised beautiful and detailed arrangements for ever changing lights. Gregory Foley, production manager, has executed the designs. This modern comedy has a long pantomime and dance in the second act. It represents a nightmare and is as grotesque and funny as it is beautiful.

Mrs. Edward Coleman has been in charge of training a group of 30 dancers. A five-piece orchestra travels with the company. The music has been especially composed for this play by Mrs. William Sulzer of Chicago.

It was played by the composer before the author of the piece, Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, last summer, and he expressed great pleasure and satisfaction with the artistic and appropriate music.

Seven children from Highland Park will play in the pantomime in addition to Mrs. Alexander O. Mascu.

Membership tickets may be procured from Mrs. F. Byfield, 843 South Linden avenue.
