FIREMEN ANSWER TWO ALARMS; LITTLE LOSS

Season of Frequent Fires Now Here, and Public Urged To Be Careful

The fire department answered two calls Wednesday one early and the other about noon. The first was for a chimney burnout on the Knight residence, 329 Park avenue. There was no material damage. The second call was to number 528 North Sheridan road, where burning leaves were too close to a garage. The season of frequent fire alarms is here. With the starting of fires in furnaces and stoves the firemen will be kept busy. Property owners are urged to use every precaution to avert unnecessary calls on the firemen by keeping flues clean and using care in firing heating plants.

THE ELKS LOSE TO GLENVIEW TEAM, 12-7

Game Sunday Last of Season; Locals Made Good Record During 1924

The Elks baseball team lost the last game of the season to Glenview at Glenview last Sunday, Oct. 19, with a score of 12 to 7. The Elks were off form, while Eddie Stack, who pitched for Glenview, was right. Errors by the Elks in field plus bone-head plays, accounted for some of the runs made by the other team. The game Hessler pitched was not quite up to his usual form, and 12 hits were made off him. The game was called in the eighth inning. The Elks made a better record this year than in 1923, as they won 18 games out of 22 played, and their opponents this year were much stronger and better teams. The local boys began the season by losing to Glenview and finished by losing to the same team. They hope to do much better next year.

RAVINIA ARTS CLUB NEW ORGANIZATION

Artists Form Association At Recent Meeting; Details Of Their Plans

At a recent gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cady Ewell, the artists who have been painting together Saturday afternoons, throughout the summer and autumn, adopted the name "The Ravinia Art Club." Theirs is scarcely an organization, since mutual interest alone, binds them together, but the need for a name arises, now that they are becoming known and talked about. They have been painting in local gardens and beauty spots of the North Shore. All ages are included in the group from children yet on the threshold, to seasoned painters who have grown gray following the muse. Perhaps nowhere in the world is there such a group working together. Anyone interested is welcome to join them. At the end of each afternoon all sketches are put up, for mutual benefit and criticism. The exhibition of their summer sketches, to be held in the village house of Ravinia, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, Nov. 1 and 2, promises their friends and local public a most interesting show. Everyone is invited. Tea will be served and the artists themselves will be there to welcome the public. The group, whose interest and enthusiasm have grown in spite of the closing season, has decided to carry on through the winter, painting outdoors when possible and indoors when the weather will not permit. Also, there is a whisper that they are to write, stage, costume and produce a play.

$417 IS CLEARED AT D. A. R. RUMMAGE SALE

Report Made At Meeting Oct. 16; Interesting Program Is Rendered

On Oct. 16, the North Shore chapter of the D. A. R. held the first meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. J. F. Leaming in Ravinia. She was assisted in receiving by the following hostesses: Mrs. Charles Woodruff, Mrs. John Van Bergen, and Miss Marjorie Leaming. About 40 members and guests were present.

A report from the rummage sale committee showed that $417 had been cleared—a most gratifying amount—one which will spur them on to greater efforts next year. Mrs. Pfantstiel read the address of the president general, Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, which was delivered before the D. A. R. annual convention in Washington in June. Mrs. Charles Winston read President Coolidge's speech to the Daughters given at the same convention in which he stressed the privilege and the duty of all women to take part in the coming election and to do their best to see that honorable, intelligent men were put in office.

GIRL RESERVES ARE HOSTS TO CANVASSERS

Entertain Women Who Help Raise Y. W. C. A. Budget Wednesday

"There are girls in California, There are girls in China, Too." And there were girls aplenty at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters on Wednesday afternoon. There were "samples" there from all four Girl Reserve clubs to welcome the women who helped raise the yearly budget so successfully in the recent campaign. It was a royal get-together, with songs, and laughter and a speech or two, just to make sure that everyone knew that the association was a year around activity and that workers were needed not only at campaign time but every week in the year.

"If you have any gifts, prepare to use them now for the Y. W. C. A." this was the key note of all the talks, for in its work of building Christian character the association can use thinkers and doers. "If you have a gift for finance Mrs. Frank Pitt will welcome you to the finance committee, if you like to teach English you are needed in the Americanization work, and above all if you love girls you are most urgently needed to act as advisors to the clubs for teen-aged girls."

Help the Y. W. C. A. the year around, not only with your money but with your interest and your time.

BURIED CITIES ARE ALWAYS INTERESTING

Ancient Rhages, In Persia, Has Special Appeal; Recently Uncovered

Buried cities and their romantic histories always claim our eager attention, for we of today have a legitimate curiosity to know how the people of thousands of years ago lived. The ruined cities of Persia offer fascinating fields for explorations and not many have yielded more treasure than the ancient city of Rhages.

This city, situated on the main traveled road between India and the west, and it was through Rhages that the Great Alexander pursued the retreating Persian King Darius, some five hundred years before Christ.

Find Treasures

Modern excavators have uncovered some of the treasures of this ancient city and visitors to the Art Institute will be privileged to see many of the beautiful vases, bottles, bowls and jugs which the craftworkers of two and three thousand years ago made for their patrons. There is placed on exhibition in Gallery H-10 in the Hutchinson wing of the Art Institute a collection of about 140 pieces of Persian pottery and bronzes, lent by H. Kevorjian, of New York City. Many were taken from the ruined city of Rhages, others from Sultanabad, Hamadan, Ave and Veramin.

Royal Bottle

A royal bottle in blue lustre ware is one of the prizes of the collection, which with the exception of the one in the Metropolitan Museum of New York, is the most valuable piece of its kind in America. There is an interesting spandrel from the summer palace at Ispahan and a pair of doors, evidently painted and decorated by a miniature artist.
