PRESENTATION MARKS MOTHERS CLUB MEET

President Given Handsome Gift; Musical Program Greatly Enjoyed

A musical program of especial beauty was presented by Mrs. J. W. Hyde, violinist, and Mrs. Esther Ward Ball, pianist, before the members of the Mothers' Club of the Y. W. C. A. last Monday evening. Several selections by Boroski, MacDowell, and other modern composers as well as some Liszt waltzes delighted the listeners. Another interesting event of the evening was the presentation of a silk umbrella to Mrs. William Denzel, the president of the club, who has just been re-elected to serve for a second term. The program ended with a social hour and refreshments. This club is open to any woman of Highland Park, and as it meets at night one evening each month, it makes it possible for mothers of young children to attend their interesting programs who are unable to come in the daytime to the other club meetings.

REMEMBER in selecting your Christmas Cards, that the Highland Park Press is showing a beautiful line. You will not care to buy elsewhere after viewing their cards. Have your name printed or engraved on the cards.

HEART TAG DAY TO BE OBSERVED HERE NOV. 8

For Volunteers of America; Business Men Give Prizes; Incentive to Taggers

Saturday, Nov. 28, will be "Heart Tag Day" in Highland Park for the Volunteers of America. This is to be a "children's drive" to help children for the work is done by the youthful salespeople of the community. This organization was founded nearly 30 years ago by Gen. Ballington and Miss Maude Booth and among the many activities this phase of the prison work appeals to all hearts alike, the systematic effort to prevent the indirect punishment of innocent children caused by the penalty laid upon their elders.

Over 170,000 children have been saved to future good citizenship and it is for such as these that the Volunteers of America are having "Heart Tag Day" so when giving your quarters, dimes and half dollars, give cheerfully and gladly.

The committee sponsoring the affair is Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Rev. Frank Pitt, Dr. P. C. Wolcott, Mrs. G. E. Lichtenstein and Mrs. Wm. Doolley. Headquarters will be in the Elm Place school with Mrs. B. L. Bird, assisted by the Shilite Girl Reserves in charge.

The committee wishes to announce the cordial co-operation of the local merchants in offering a number of pretty as well as useful prizes as an incentive as well as a reward to those collecting the largest amounts for their tags.

First prize is an underarm purse given by Garnett's.

Second, No. 2 Brownie camera given by Earl W. Gsell & Co.

Third, mesh bag given by I. H. Nemeroff.

Fourth, roller skates given by the Hussey Hardware co.

Fifth, fountain pen given by Sweetland pharmacy.

Sixth, 2-pound box of chocolates given by Lencien.

Those who do not win prizes but who collect at least $3.00 for their tags will receive a pass good for two movie tickets at the Highland Park or Pearl theatres.

The committee hopes everybody will "have a heart" Saturday, thereby helping some unfortunate.

INTERESTING NOTES OF WORK OF THE D. B. E.

Plymouth Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, report that their Halloween party held last week was a most successful and jolly affair. Some very generous contributions to the fund for the British Old People's home at Riverside were received.

Tonight (Thursday) Mrs. T. Thurstby of Wilmette will entertain the ladies and their friends at a card party for the benefit of the home.

The next monthly meeting of the D. B. E. will be held on Wednesday evening, Nov. 12 at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters promptly at 8 o'clock. Will all members try to be present? All ladies of British birth or descent or wives of British men who are interested in this work are cordially invited.

AMERICAN PIANISTS TO APPEAR IN CONCERT

Guy Maier and Lee Pattison in Two Piano Recital, Dec. 7 At Elm Place School

Guy Maier and Lee Pattison are two young Americans who, according to general musical opinion, have made a new art of the long abused two-piano program, and for the past few seasons their success in this field has been remarkable.

These quiet-mannered, unassuming young men give a duplex performance that is all in its own class. Others may give two-piano recitals; it has remained for them to raise the form to a most fascinating entertainment.

It is not enough to say that the listener can hardly tell where one leaves off at one keyboard and the other begins at the second, though that is true. Neither is it enough to say that they play everything from Bach down to Germaine Tailleferre, who is the most super-modern of all the moderns, though that is also true. They play a Russian waltz, and never was a waltz more delightful. They change to a bit of Cesar Franck, and one hears a charm in the old Belgian one never before suspected.

They even play a glorified form of jazz, thereby confounding the lofty of brow, and delighting all the rest. On the afternoon of Sunday, Dec. 7, these pianists will give a recital at the Elm Place auditorium.

The girls with large feet formerly thought that they had to hide them with long skirts, but lately they have reached the conclusion that feet were made to walk with and not to fascinate the men.

"THE IRON HORSE" AT WOOD'S THEATRE

Never in the history of the theatre has a cinema production gotten away to a more brilliant start than "The Iron Horse," the William Fox production, which opened at the Woods theatre in Chicago this week. The newspaper critics used the most glowing adjectives in their notices.

Ashton Stevens in "The Herald-Examiner" said: "The Iron Horse is a great show. It is a virile tribute to the old west, a glowing chapter of its romantic and glamorous history."

Writing in "The Journal of Commerce" Paul Martin termed it: "A production that gave me the most thrilling evening I have ever had as a motion picture spectator. I shall see it again as soon as I have the opportunity."

"Every one should see it," writes Virginia Dale in "The Journal" adding: "It is a thrilling picture of the winning of the west, fascinating—dramatic."

Carl Sanbury in "The Chicago Daily News" wrote "It rates high as an achievement in motion picture art."

Throughout the story is one of the most appealing of love stories with George O'Brien and Madge Bellamy in the principal roles. The production is of the most intense interest to Chicago and the surrounding cities as it was due to the historic events chronicled in this production that Chicago took its proud place as a leader in the commercial world.
