D. A. R. MEETING LAST THURSDAY P. M. Members And Guests Enjoy A Fine Program; Tableau; Readings and Music

A large number of members and guests of the North Shore chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. Ross J. Beatty on Ravine drive last Thursday afternoon for one of the most attractive programs ever put on by the chapter.

The subject for the afternoon was "Historic American Women," and was portrayed in a series of lovely tableaux arranged by Mrs. Beatty and her committee. Lady Martha Washington, Mistress Priscilla and Barbara Fritchies were remarkably like their portraits. Miss Chandler in a beautiful gown of softest blue silk with priceless lace trimming and Mrs. Constant Hopkins in shimmering satin made two other effective and striking pictures.

Miss Vernese Beatty and Miss Betty Phelps went through a spatey minnet accompanied by Mrs. Beatty on the harp, and with Mrs. Laurie at the piano.

Mrs. Charles Winston gave explanatory readings during each tableau. Mrs. Beatty also played other music during the afternoon, proving herself a versatile and gifted hostess. Those receiving with Mrs. Beatty were Mrs. E. P. Sedgwick, Mrs. H. D. Faxon, Mrs. William Bell and Mrs. Frederick Watkins.—Contributed.
