 Last Sunday we had a record breaking attendance of 171 and an offering of $123.46 in the Sunday school. We cannot help but wonder where the large offering came from. It is surmised that quite a portion of it came from "above."
 Last Sunday evening Miss Sarah Loucks of the Moody Bible institute gave an informing and inspiring address on India. The service was under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society. The curios were interesting especially to the boys and girls. The offering for missions was generous.
 The Christmas entertainment will be held on Tuesday evening, December 23.
