COUNTY OFFICIALS ATTEND BIG BANQUET

Are Entertained At Waukegan
By County Recorder and
Clerk of Court

Members of the Lake County Board of Supervisors, the sheriff's office and the courts of Lake county, the treasurer's office, county clerk's office and other officials of the county gathered at the Plaza hotel last Wednesday for a banquet entertainment put on by Lewis O. Brockway, county recorder, and L. J. Wilmot, clerk of the circuit court. The party numbered 62 men in the aggregate and all joined in honoring the two hosts. An excellent dinner was served and a friendly "talkfest" continued until 2 o'clock.

L. J. Wilmot acted as toastmaster and the speakers were the judge of the circuit court, States Attorney

A. V. Smith, Judge Perry L. Persons, T. Arthur Simpson, county superintendent of schools, "Daddy" Doyle, representing the sheriff's office, and Fred Kirchner, chairman of the board of supervisors.

The entertainment, explained as a "vote getter" by the hosts, both of whom were elected to office without opposition, was in honor of the separating of the double office of county recorder and circuit clerk. And the occasion brought together the three branches of the county government, legislative, executive and judicial.

It was remarked at the banquet that never in the history of Lake county has the entire body of officials of the county worked together in such perfect harmony, efficiently and good will as the present office holders.

What worries children these days is whether or not daddy's oil burner will interfere with Santa's visitation.
