"The Shopper"

Up near the North Pole four span of reindeer are undergoing some pretty stiff treatment these days. Rub-downs—you know—these days. Rub-downs—around and around the Pole, like so many Jack Dempseys getting ready for a bout. But do they mind? Not they, for they know what's ahead. That's a pretty big stretch—all the way down here in a night, with a heavy pack in the sleigh, behind. And ah, that pack! How many thoughts hover around about it these days! What does it contain, I wonder, for you and me?

Gifts from Lebolt
Well perhaps, if we've been all that we should be to those who care for us most, it contains some fair and lovely gift from Lebolt & Company, The House of Pearls, eh? Not necessarily expensive, of course. It may be a set of pen and pencil, gold filled, in a velvet case, at $9.50, or a dainty little gold penknife, at $10, or it may be a brocaded vanity at $5, a hand hammered cigarette case at $12, or even a sterling napkin band with raised initial at $2. Or if we're a man—no use in assuming we're all ladies—it may be a bill fold with gold corners, at $6.50 or a silver belt buckle, with belt and initial, for $3.50 or even—ah, this is lovely—a set of shirt studs and cuff links at $15—All these may be found at Lebolt's, 101 South State, and much more besides.

Imported Handkerchiefs for Men
For a discreet lady who wishes to make a very nice but reserved and acceptable gift to a man I have seen nothing better than the imported hand monogrammed handkerchiefs which are to be found, conveniently located on the ground floor of the Hub, State and Jackson. These handkerchiefs are monogrammed in colors very smartly, with two initials, and come three in a box at $3.50 or individually at $1.25 each. Some of them have cut work around the initial, there are dozens of styles, and all were personally selected abroad by the Hub's own representatives. Now, can you think of anything nicer than that?

Hand Bags from a Smart Shop
But to come back to gifts for ladies, which is really the important subject after all, isn't it, probably as nice a gift as anyone could select is a handsome hand bag. We all want them, don't we—and, after all, it isn't easy to find the really elegant sort. Yet at the smart Taylor Shop, 28 East Randolph street, the newest and most charming sort of bags are always to be found. Just new, in order to make selection easier, two especially good styles are being shown—the capacious under-arm bag and the gate-frame bag, which may be had at prices ranging from $8.50 to $30. Ah yes, very handsome they are really. And by the way, while you are at Taylor's, stop and view their fitted suit cases, at $25 to $150.

Fur Coats—Reduced
A sale of furs before Christmas! Impossible! Well, let us say improbable. Mrs. Henning—the famous Mrs. Henning of Henning's Furs, in the Stewart building just across from Field's on State street, understands as well as you or I that it would be a joy to have a new fur coat for the Christmas season, perhaps even—ah, audacious thought—as a Christmas gift, and if furs have to be reduced later anyhow, for a sale, why not have them reduced now and make everybody happy? So at Henning's all the fur coats are offered right now at very much cut prices. Such beautiful furs, too! Dyed ermine, trimmed with long fox; astrakan, trimmed with long fox; But go and see for yourself. You really must go and see!

A Russian Milliner
"A hat," she cries, "my kingdom for a hat!" Yes, but what kind of a hat? Why, a becoming hat! A—you understand—spirited hat! Well then, you must go to Sonia, for that is just the kind of hat she makes. Sonia, whose shop on the eighth floor of the Lake View building overlooks the lake! Sonia, who is an artist and a Russian artist at that. Besides all her winter hats are reduced to about half-price, now. The address is 116 South Michigan avenue.

A Corset as Soft as a Glove
Can you believe that a garment as soft as a glove will shape and mould the figure; will—more—reduce the figure? Yet it will. It—this corset which is called a Body Glove—is the invention of a graduate nurse and the very weave of the material is such that it sets up a gentle massage whenever you move. Yet you never wear a lighter, more comfortable garment. Go to Florence Lund, at 332 in the Republic building, and let her fit a Body Glove to you. The address is 209 South State street.

Styles for Stout Women
No! No doubt you don't consider yourself stout! Many of us don't. Yet perhaps you find that the ordinary size 38 or 40 binds in the arms or draws across the hips. Then why don't you try a frock from Lane Bryant's? At Lane Bryant's they have what one might call combination dresses—large busts or dresses with large busts and small hips. Styles are of the very most elegant, from New York or Paris. And sizes, of course, run up to 56. As you know the shop forms the corner of Washington Street and Wabash avenue.

Let's Run Away—Across the Sea
Alas, this miserable winter! It's only just begun, and yet we've had enough. It whips our cheeks and turns our poor little noses purple with cold. Can you believe—can you believe that somewhere the palms are blowing, the waters sparkling and the pink flamingo whistling to his mate? Let's go? The White Star Line offers a wonderful cruise—six or seven weeks out of New York. Straight away south you go, into sunny waters. First you stop at the islands, just like Christopher Columbus. Then Gibraltar—then Algeria! Then, my goodness, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Palestine, Egypt! And more! And all that in seven weeks! And all the while the sunshine, and comfort, and gaiety! Can it be that such things really be? Come, let's run away on a Mediterranean Cruise. For details inquire at 127 South State street.

Canadian Pacific Cruises
The Canadian Pacific steamship cruises to the Gateway Ports of the world for 1925 offer all intending travellers an opportunity to select a cruise for this winter that will fit in with the amount of time they have at their disposal. There will be four cruises, one round the world by the famous "Empress of France" the vessel twice chosen by the Prince of Wales for his trips to America, one to the Mediterranean by the "Empress of Scotland" and two to the West Indies by the "S.S. Montroyal."

A feature of all Canadian Pacific cruises is the fact that each one is conducted from start to finish entirely under Canadian Pacific management, thus ensuring the service during the entire cruise for which the Canadian Pacific is world-famous. Further particulars regarding all these cruises may be had from Mr. R. S. Elworthy, steamship general agent of the Canadian Pacific in the new Straus building, Chicago.

MT. VERNON DOUBLING ITS WATER SUPPLY
Increases Reservoir to Six Hundred Million Gallons; Landscaping

The biggest job in landscape gardening in the history of Jefferson county is now in progress a few miles north of Mount Vernon. Nature's face is being transformed. Low ground is being transformed into high ground and high spots ironed out. Roads are being raised ten feet above present levels and the entire appearance of a wide stretch of territory being radically changed.

While this will make the section one of the most attractive scenic spots in the country, it is being done for a practical purpose. It is part of the plan of doubling the water supply of Mt. Vernon, which is being accomplished by the Illinois Power and Light corporation.

When completed, the reservoir will have a capacity of 600,000,000 gallons of water, or twice the amount held by the present lake and will give a water supply adequate for the needs of a city of 30,000 inhabitants. A new dam, which will be 150 feet wide at its base, is being built. It is estimated that when the work is completed it will take at least two years of normal rainfall to fill the big reservoir, and that at all times there will be water storage sufficient to supply Mt. Vernon for a period of two years.

TELEPHONE SYSTEM ON AVIATION FIELD
Settlements in Several Estate Cases Made; Orders, Entries Made in Docket

A complete telephone system with no less than 50 individual stations was constructed at the Wilbur Wright field in connection with the staging of the air races on that field in October. By means of this telephone system, which necessitated the stringing of approximately 50 miles of wire, an instant and direct communication with officials in each of the seven pylons along the three race courses and with officers at various points on the field was established. The installation of the telephonic system to the scoreboards in front of the grandstand and the loud speaking arrangements kept the spectators informed of the progress of the races.
