THREE MILLIONS IN IMPROVEMENTS HERE

BUILDINGS & MUNICIPAL

New Structures Erected or Begun; Total Near $1,400,000;
Review and Totals by Months Given

Building improvements in Highland Park in 1924 totalled close to one million, four hundred thousand dollars in value, according to the records in the office of City Building Inspector Morris.

Municipal improvements, including new paving, waterworks, and sewer extensions, bridge work and the like, completed or begun during the year by the city, total in value approximately one million, six hundred thousand dollars, making a grand total of close to three millions of dollars of building and civic improvements completed or under way here in the past year.

Municipal Improvements
Chief among the extensive municipal improvements which were originated during the year are: Sewer and water in Sunset Terrace, Ravinia Woods paving, Southwest water system, Glencoe avenue paving, Dean avenue extension, Northwood Manor sewer, Ravinia court sewer, Ravinia court water mains, Lake View Terrace sewer, Sheridan road paving and bridge, Sunset Terrace paving, St. Johns avenue paving to Elm; South Green Bay systems of water and sewer, including Bartlett subdivision; paving of Laurel avenue and Second street, St. Johns avenue paving, Laurel to Sheridan and from Cedar to Roger Williams avenue; West Deerfield road system of water mains and Southeast system of sewers.

More Next Year
The city council is considering the situations in other territory needing improvements, including that recently annexed, and it is very probable that during the coming year more than a million dollars worth of additional municipal improvements will be under way.

The building improvements for 1924 run somewhat below the record for 1923, during which year an exceptionally large number of new residences were erected, totalling over 160 in number, besides other buildings. In 1924, private property improvements ran more to smaller buildings, but there were numerous large public building improvements started. The total for 1923 was $1,940,806, as compared with $1,389,120 for 1924, the latter with December records complete only to the beginning of this week.

The building records are listed under the heads of dwellings, garages (including other small buildings), and public buildings, such as schools, churches, theatres, etc. Totals for each are as follows: Dwellings, $886,483; garages, etc., $104,287; public buildings, $398,350. The largest amount for a single building permit during the year was that of the new Assembly hall for the high school, something over $185,000, according to the records. This is the largest permit for a single building on record in the inspector's office.

Building Record by Months
The totals for each month of 1924, under the heads mentioned, are given as follows; in some months no public buildings were listed:

January—Dwellings, $24,150; garages, $100; public buildings, $72,200; total, $101,450.
February—Dwellings, $56,500; garages, $600; total, $57,100.
March—Dwellings, $127,000; garages, $6,474; total, $133,474.
