LITERATURE STUDY CLASSES PLANNED

Another course open to the public of Highland Park is being sponsored by the Highland Park Woman's club. On five consecutive Wednesday mornings, at 10:30 beginning Jan. 7th, Dr. Franklin Bliss Snyder will conduct a class on the study of literature.

Dr. Snyder, professor of English at Northwestern University, needs no introduction to the people of this community. His lectures at the Highland Park Woman's Club and at the Osoli Club have always been enthusiastically received. It is indeed a rare privilege to be able to announce this series of talks.

The subjects will be as follows:
 Jan. 7. "What Is a Good Novel?"
 Jan. 14. "English Novelists of Today."

Jan. 21. "Our Contemporary American Novel."
 Jan. 28. "American Poets and Poetry of Today."

Feb. 4. "The Chief English Poets of Today."

The charge for the course is very small. Mrs. George W. Childs, 850 North Sheridan road, telephone 677, will be in charge of the sale of tickets and Mrs. Carleton Harkness of 352 Prospect avenue, financial secretary of the club, will also have tickets for sale.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT ROCKFORD

Mrs. Dorothy Baker Belk passed away on Dec. 27 at Rockford, Ill. Mrs. Belk will be remembered here in Highland Park as Dorothy Baker. She graduated from Deerfield-Shields high school in June 1917, and the following year went to Washington, D. C., where for over a year she was engaged in war work. On New Year's Day, 1919, she was married to William N. Belk of Hunter, Arkansas, in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Belk have made their home in Rockford for the past two years. Besides her husband Mrs. Belk leaves her two little daughters, Elizabeth Jane and Carol Joy. Her father, Mr. S. J. Baker, a brother, Alden S. Baker, and four sisters, Alice L. Baker, Bessie Baker, Esther B. Clark and Mary S. Baker, also survive her. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon from the Second Congregational church at Rockford.

STEALS CHRISTMAS LAMPS FROM TREES

Some petty thief stole the colored electric lamps of the evergreen trees in front of the Highland Park Press office some time between the night before Christmas and the day after Christmas. This is probably the meanest holiday stunt reported hereabouts. The lights were placed on the trees as a Christmas decoration, and anybody who would stoop to a theft of this kind would steal a baby's toy from Santa's pack if given a chance. It isn't the value of the lamps, but the lack of appreciation of the principle which prompted their use on the trees at this time that aggravates the offense.
