VOLUME XV HORACE J. BRIDGE AT WOMAN

MEETING NEXT T

To Be Open Session and by Noted Author Friends of Club Invited

The next regular meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club will be held next Tuesday afternoon, at 8 o'clock, when Horace J. Bridge will address the club on the "Great Britain's Contribution to American Civilization." Mr. Bridge is peculiarly qualified to speak on this subject, having been an Englishman for the past ten years, and a resident of the United States. He has read and knows that it is no exaggeration to say that Mr. Bridge's love and sympathy for both of his birth and the land of adoption. In his pages he places upon record "as one who gratefully appreciates the conferred upon him by the and is not oblivious of the obligations which are ed." He believes that "grants" may learn something from his interpretation of "what means"

Spiritual Interpretation
 To those who have rebelled against Clarence Darrow's mechanistic views of human life, the March Century will be a revelation. Mr. Bridge states the characteristic defense of theistic.

Mr. Bridge is known in the leader of the Chicago Ethical Society, before which he spoke Sunday morning at eleven, the Play House on Michigan. He is president of the He Settlement, and of the Chicago League, an organization assisting negroes. Since coming to this country in 1915, he has written the following books: On Becoming an American, The Religion of Ethical Culture, As I Was Jew-baiting, a little book denouncing what he called evil newly camouflaged Fellow Shakespeare, and a preface to a very beautiful Erasmus, which he has published.

Out of consideration for the list of people who number among the friends of the Woman's Club has decided this last program meeting of an open meeting, extending invitation to those friends a public. All interested are attend without the formal invitation from a member.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEET NEXT WED

The regular monthly meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary of the Highland Park Hospital will be held at the Episcopal Parish House on Sunday, April 5, at 10 a. m. Dr. Speed will address the meeting at 8 o'clock.

Frederick Stock to Conduct Orchestras Here Next S

The Civic Orchestra of the Highland Park Music Association will appear on Sunday, conducted by Frederick Stock. This is the last concert of the 1924-1925 season. As this is a rare occasion, quite certain that there will be large attendance. The orchestra should be filled flowing next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by North Shore music.

The Civic orchestra was for the purpose of training students for orchestral work and symphonic orchestra. Many of its players were here from Europe.

Mr. Stock who is the foremost conductor recently had conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Music by the University of Chicago.
