

Pearl Theatre

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS

All PHOTOPLAYS shown at THE CHICAGO, Leading Theatre are presented at the PEARL THEATRE

SUN. & MON., JUNE 14 & 15 Continuous Sunday 6 to 11 p.m. IRENE RICH and WILLARD LEWIS

"THE MAN WITHOUT A CONSCIENCE" Comedy: THE SPATS in "THE ROYAL FOUR-FLUSH" including FOX NEWS Monday

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16 & 17 HOUSE PETERS - PATSY RUTH MILLER and a brilliant cast in "HEAD WINDS"

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, JUNE 18 & 19 ELEANOR BOARDMAN, MATT MOORE and WILLIAM RUSSELL

"THE WAY OF A GIRL" Comedy: OUR GANG in "THE LOVE BUG" and FOX NEWS

MARY PHILBIN and NORMAN KERRY "FIFTH AVENUE MODELS" also AESOP FABLE - TOPICS OF THE DAY

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mr. Lucian E. Williams of Green Bay road sailed Tuesday on the Aquitania to play in the International Tennis tournament at Wimbledon, England.

Don't forget that next Sunday is the big Reunion Day of St. Paul's Evangelical church at Deerfield. Anyone not affiliated with any other church or anyone interested in St. Paul's Sunday school is invited. The big day will start with a meeting in the church auditorium at ten-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Frederick Golden and children, Frederick, Jr., and Gloria Jean of Burlington, Ia., are here for a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Golden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Conrad of McGovern street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cummings are building a new home on Elm street, Highland.

Roslyn Beatty will graduate next week from Lawrenceville school, Lawrenceville, N. J., and will then return for the summer.

Miss Catharine Lytton leaves on Saturday to visit in Detroit, Mich., and New York City. Miss Lytton expects to attend the opening night of opera at Ravinia on June 27.

Miss Katherine Carqueville was graduated last week from Miss Merrill's school at Manaroneck, N. Y., and is at present at her home on Laurel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cabonargi have returned from a delightful three months tour of France and other interesting parts of southern Europe. They motored extensively through Italy while abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Czerwan have purchased the Smith house at the corner of Central and Sheridan avenues, Highland, which Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cummings formerly rented.

The next regular meeting of the Lady Elks social club will be held on Wednesday afternoon, June 17, at two-thirty o'clock at the Elks' clubhouse.

Mrs. Andrew J. Crawford of Terra Haute, Ind., will visit Miss Grace Marsh of Prospect avenue the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Kehrwald are moving from Sheridan avenue to the Schwingel house on North Green Bay road.

Sylvia Drake of Laurel avenue is quite ill with the measles, and will be under quarantine for the next couple of weeks.

Miss Viola Shields is leaving today for New York, and expects to spend the summer in New England.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hendricks and her son, Mr. C. V. Hendricks are going to Elmhurst where they will remain until the end of the month. Later they will go east via the lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rickoff have moved into the Duchane house on Sheridan avenue which was formerly occupied by the Czerwan family.

Little Miss LaVerne Webster is quarantined with the measles.

Khaki play suits for both girls and boys for camping and hiking now being shown at The Junior Sports Shop.

Miss Betty Southerland of North Sheridan road sailed Saturday from Montreal to be gone three months touring France, Italy and England. Miss Southerland is expected home some time in September.

The Baraca class of the First United Evangelical church met on Tuesday evening at the home of Joseph Redine on South Second street.

Little Johnny, Benson of Sheridan avenue is confined to his home with an attack of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex R. Carqueville of Laurel avenue have as their guest this week Mr. John Stevens of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who is on his way home from school in the west.

Mrs. Joseph Thacker and son who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Wichman of South St. John's avenue for the past few weeks left last week for Parral, Mexico, where they are missionaries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Manning and youngest son of North Linden avenue are going east to attend the graduation exercises of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in New York from which school Conant Manning is graduated this year. They will also attend the graduation exercises of their son, Gordon, at Lawrenceville school, Lawrenceville, N. J. Then Mr. and Mrs. Manning and their sons will go to Glenburnie-on-Lake-George, N. Y., where they have a summer home.

Miss Rosemary Lytton arrives home next week from Montemare school, Lake Placid, N. Y.

Mrs. Wilma Williams, primary teacher in the Northbrook school, who lives at the Malmbar home on S. Green Bay road, attended the commencement exercises of a school near Arlington Heights, Thursday evening, in which her sister is teacher.

Mrs. Archibald Abercromby was hostess to Campbell Chapter Guild, yesterday afternoon.

Be sure to attend the "Singing School" to be given by members of the Eastern Star, in Masonic temple next Wednesday evening, June 17.

Mrs. Daniel Cobb entertained a few friends informally on Monday for Mrs. Ryther of Atlanta, Ga., who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Thomas G. Troxel.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Udell and Mrs. S. A. St. Peter spent the weekend in Grand Rapids, Mich.

We have a few fine sport coats left to be sold at less than cost price. The Loretta Shop. 15adv

Mr. and Mrs. William Monroe Wright have returned from Lexington, Ky., where they spent the past few weeks completing the decorating of their new home, where they expect to move within ten days, to make their future home.

Miss Olivia Fisher will graduate from Northwestern university on Monday. Miss Fisher is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

See our boys' tub suits in pongee, linen, chambray, etc., in both middy and Oliver Twist styles—in a variety of colors—sizes 2 to 8. The Junior Sports Shop. 15adv

Mrs. Alice Turritt and daughter, Mary Beverly and Mrs. M. Warner spent Sunday in Austin as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McHugh.

The pupils of Daphne Edwards, concert pianist and teacher were presented in recital Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Morris, 953 Linden avenue. Those who appeared were Virginia Engels, Nancy Morse, Peggy Morse, Eleanor Roberts, Florence Dingle, Eleanor Rankin, Dorothy Schidewitz and Robert Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Richardson announce the birth of a son, Tuesday evening at the Highland Park hospital. Mrs. Richardson was formerly Miss Grace Fulkerson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gifford of the Mopaine hotel are leaving this week for Minocqua, Wis., where they will spend the summer.

The "Singing School" will be given at Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, June 17 at eight o'clock. All who enjoy old fashioned costumes and old fashioned songs are invited to come and hear as well as see this humorous play. The proceeds will go toward the organ fund of the Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denzel with friends from Chicago are attending the coal dealers convention at Delavan, Wis., this week.

Mrs. Constant C. Hopkins entertained the Board of the Ossoli club at luncheon on Monday.

Mrs. Miller of Tennessee is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Heyl Keagle for several weeks.

Mrs. Fred Zahnle and daughter, Corrine returned Monday from Rhineland, Wis., where they spent the past week visiting relatives.

Dorothy Morrison of St. John's avenue, entertained several friends in honor of her birthday anniversary, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Milton J. Hardacre returned Thursday from a ten days trip in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William Monroe Wright will spend the week-end in Peoria with their daughter, Mrs. Roy Page.

Mrs. Leo Pereira, 1129 Wade St., has returned from St. Louis, Mo., where she attended commencement exercises at Principia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmsted of Highland were called to LaPorte, Ind., this week by the death of Mrs. T. Hoffman, friend of Mrs. Holmsted. Funeral services will be held Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Mutchler has returned from Pasadena, Calif., to her home in San Diego, where she has been for the past few weeks caring for her sister, Mrs. Catherine T. Murphy who passed away Saturday, May 23. Mrs. Murphy is survived by her husband, John Murphy and three sisters, Mrs. Frank Mutchler of San Diego, Mrs. W. H. McCain and Mrs. Frank Hahn of Porterville, Calif., and Thomas Tierney of San Diego, Calif. Pontifical high mass was held at St. Andrews church, Tuesday morning, May 26 with services at Chapel of Bergien and Cabot. Burial was in Calvary cemetery, Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Broddard announced the marriage of their daughter, Edna M., to Norman Fink of Ft. Sheridan which took place Saturday, June 6, at Ft. Sheridan, Rev. Mr. McGuire officiating.

Mrs. Thomas G. Troxel and daughter, Mrs. Ryther and Ann Ryther left yesterday for Toronto, Canada, where they will spend the summer. Mrs. Troxel has rented her home for the summer to Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Small.

Mrs. William H. Barker is leaving the early part of next week for Ottawa, Canada where she will spend the summer. She will be joined by her son, Robert who has been attending Bishop Ridley college at St. Catherine, Ontario. Mr. Barker will spend part of the summer at the Moraine hotel, going to Ottawa later in the season. Mario Chamlee has leased Barker's residence for the Ravinia season.

The Young People's Missionary Circle of the Ebenezer Evangelical church will meet at the home of Carolyn Saathoff on Friday evening.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Harry Mills for the wedding of her daughter, Mary Elizabeth to Mr. Samuel I. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Martin of this city. The ceremony will take place Saturday, June 27 at ten thirty o'clock at St. Mary's church, Lake Forest. Miss Mills will be attended by Miss Winifred Hagen of Chicago as maid of honor; Miss Winifred Cagney, Miss Elizabeth Griffin of Chicago and Miss Colette Fisher of this city as bridesmaids. James C. Martin of Chicago will be his brother's best man, and ushering will be Jerry Malady, James E. Egan of Chicago and John C. O'Brien of this city. The ceremony will be followed by a breakfast at the Moraine hotel.

On Wednesday Miss Elizabeth Griffin entertained the girls of the bridal party at a luncheon at Illinois Athletic club followed by a matinee party at the Studebaker where Grace George is playing in "She Had to Know." Mrs. Warren Edwards will give a luncheon at her home 649 Judson avenue, Evanston on Thursday (today) in Miss Mills' honor. Mrs. Edwards' luncheon will be followed by a trousseau tea given by Miss Mills for her Evanston friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Lynch of 1354 Estes avenue will give a dancing party at their home on Saturday evening for Miss Mills and Mr. Martin.

Miss Azora Mitchell is leaving Saturday on a trip east visiting friends and relatives and expects to be gone four weeks.

For ideal graduation gifts, see what the Loretta Shop has to show you. 15adv

One of the largest and most delightful affairs of the season was given last Sunday, June 7, when Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Peyraud, and Mr. John Robertson and his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Wells Robertson, entertained a large group of artists of Chicago and vicinity. Among the one hundred and fifty guests present were the Swiss Vice-Consul Dr. Schwindler, man and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Stacey, Miss Lucie Hartrath, Mr. and Mrs. James Cady Ewell, Mr. and Mrs. Ross J. Beatty, Mr. Charles Dennis who is managing-editor of the Chicago Daily News, Mrs. Charles Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Yeaton, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Mast, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bennett Grover, Mr. and Mrs. David Clarke, Dr. Oscar Kraft, Dr. Clarence L. Wheaton, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hess, Dr. and Mrs. Hess, and Miss Charlotte Pearson of London, England, and Stockholm, Sweden. Miss Pearson is art critic on a London magazine and is here in the interest of Swedish art. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ingerle, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Alling of Lake Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Raymond, Miss Williams who is the art editor of the Chicago Daily News, Herr Schorsch of Leipzig, Germany, associate sculptor with the famous Professor Klingner, and Miss Grace Hickok. The guests enjoyed themselves at the Peyraud home on Judson avenue during the afternoon and evening. Supper was served on the terrace and in the ravine.

Mr. Heyl Keagle is in the Highland Park hospital suffering from a fractured knee cap, received last week when he fell from a scaffold. He is reported as getting along nicely, but he will not have the use of his limb for several months.

Miss Katherine Kenry entertained about thirty-five friends last Saturday evening at a surprise miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Elizabeth Curley whose marriage to Michael O'Flaherty will take place in the near future. Miss Curley was presented many beautiful gifts.

A class composed of members of the Fort Sheridan Woman's club has just completed a course in home nursing, given by the American Red Cross. Those who received certificates were Mrs. Peschman, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. L. Annen, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Hugo Winkler, all of Fort Sheridan, and Mrs. John Peterson of Highland Park.

Miss Florence Russell of South Sheridan road will be a member of the graduating class of the Chicago Teachers' college tomorrow. Miss Russell has been president of the student body during the past year.

Dainty frocks for girls—as well as prints and gingham— in all sizes and colors. The Junior Sports Shop. 15adv

Miss Elizabeth Kimball, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kimball, is at the Evanston hospital where she has been for the past month undergoing special orthopedic treatment under Dr. John Porter. Her mother is with her. We are happy to say that Elizabeth is reported as making splendid progress.

Miss Marion C. Carr returned yesterday from Elmhurst, Ind. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Carr who spent the winter in Chicago have now returned to Highland Park and are at 730 North St. John's avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harmon of Laurel avenue have rented their home to Giuseppe Danise and her two children leave Monday for Compo Beach, Conn., to spend the next three months. Miss Ethel Harmon will meet her mother in the east. Mr. Harmon will join the party later in the summer. Mrs. Harmon's mother and sister, Mrs. Boulton and Miss Boulton of Beaumont, Calif., will also visit Mrs. Harmon at Compo Beach.

Mrs. J. G. Fidler and son and her sister Mrs. A. Weiss of South Second street motored to Sycamore, Ill., where they spent Decoration Day with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wall. On Sunday they were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Unangst at Polo, Ill. On Tuesday, June 2 the Fidders, Mrs. Weiss, and Rev. and Mrs. Unangst motored to the Dells. Last Thursday they visited friends and relatives at Rockford, returning home on Saturday, June 6, after a most delightful week.

Mrs. Henry E. Mason entertained Sunday afternoon at a reunion of General Hospital No. 28, Fort Sheridan. Many nurses and ex-service men were present. This is a yearly event which is held. Col. Owen of Ft. Sheridan was present.

Mrs. Walter Vetter of Lake Forest will entertain the Junior Star Club next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Parratt of N. St. Johns avenue, have motored to Long Lake, Wis., where they will enjoy a ten days' vacation.

Little Edna Winter entertained 12 friends at dinner Sunday in honor of her twelfth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Blanche Leon of Los Angeles, Calif., is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. James Allen and Mrs. George Stagg, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Coale, Sr., motored to Galesburg, Ill., where they will spend the week-end with friends.

June Gifts

Appropriate and Practical

June simply calls for gifts of some kind for some purpose from most of us. Maybe a wedding or a graduation, but it's a gift occasion. Turn to us for a practical and appropriate solution of your gift problems. We solve them annually to everyone's satisfaction.

For Graduation

Kodaks	Albums
Candy	Stationery
Fountain Pens	Perfume
Compacts	Manicure Sets
Eversharp Pencils

GENUINE GILLETTE
89c RAZOR 89c

Earl W. Gsell & Co.

PHARMACISTS

Phone 23 389 Central Ave.

Washing Machines

Our complete line of high grade machines enables you to choose the machine best suited to your needs.

Don't forget we carry a complete line of electrical appliances and repair appliances of all kinds.

Note—Buy your Electric Fan now as our stock is going very fast.

Prompt Efficient Service

Huber Electric Co.

382 E. Central Avenue Telephone H. P. 150
HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS

Have Your Overcoats Cleaned

BEFORE PUTTING THEM AWAY
A Wonderful Protection Against Moths

DUFFY & DUFFY

Cleaners and Dyers
Telephone Highland Park 386

JUST A MOMENT, PLEASE!

Have you some young friend or relative who will be among the graduates from our schools?

For CONGRATULATION CARDS or FOUNTAIN PENS
GOOD BOOKS
FINE STATIONERY

suitable gifts for this happy occasion

ALBERT LARSON, Stationer

Too Late to Classify

At Ithaca, New York, a black walnut tree budded in May, 1918, and bore its first crop of 125 nuts in 1924. Speeding 29 miles an hour, George Stephenson's Rocket won the prize in the famous competitive locomotive tests of 1825.

HELP WANTED—Messenger for full time. Must be 16 years of age. Apply Western Union.

North Shore

Sheridan Road

The Maximum in All Phases

Checking Savings

MADE

Telephone H. P. 150

Let MOLDANER CLEANING

We have cut our prices...

Prices begin Men's Suits pressed $.75 Suits cleaned and pressed 1.75

QUALITY and PROMPT SERVICE

Moldaner & H.

6 North Sheridan Road

Open House

Come in before or after

refere

SO SANDY SAND

THE GREEN V

MASONIC

23 N. Sheridan Rd. Highland Park

LOCAL BOYS MAKE SHOWING IN TOURNEY

Harry Moroney and J. P. Rouse Jr., who attended the National Open Tournament at Worcester, Mass., last week, made a very good showing, even though they did not come through with the winning score. Rouse played the first day of the tourney at turned in a score of 183 on the first 36 holes. He withdrew then, realizing he could not win. Moroney played the second day and made 77 on the first 36 holes. He also withdrew. Highland Park is proud of these boys for they competed with many of the best players of the country, and made a splendid showing. Their records promise much for the future.

LOOTING OF MAIL BOX IS DISCOVERED

Boy Finds Letters and Checks in Vacant Lock Investigation Started

Looting of a patron's box in the Highland Park post office was discovered last Monday when a young boy, aged 12, found a bunch of letters and checks in value about $1,500 in a vacant lot. The mail belonged to Highland Park firm and probably had been removed from the post office some time ago, were reports attempting to rifle boxes in the office. The matter will be reported to postal authorities and if the culprit located a serious penalty is probable.

People who have a little money invest find no difficulty in making friends.