

DEERFIELD—OUR NEIGHBOR ON THE WEST

Items of Interest in This Rapidly Growing Community

Delbert Meyer, who has been working for A. L. Taylor, is assisting in Lencioni's Blue Bird Shop.

There were over 3,000 calls to Highland Park and over 5,000 other "long distance" calls from the Deerfield telephone office, last month, besides the numerous local calls, showing what a busy place Deerfield is getting to be.

Miss Lorraine Weigle entertained at a birthday party at her home on Tuesday afternoon.

There is quite an epidemic of pink eye among the children in the town.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Connell moved from the Chester Wessling flat to their lovely new home on Ridgewood drive, Highland Park, last week. Dr. O'Connell will have his office in the Wessling flat, until his new office in the John Stryker block is ready.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and little daughter, Shirley, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Dahlsted of Chicago Friday. Their niece, Miss Mabel Hammer of Chicago, returned with them to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Strong of Chestnut street spent the week-end with Mr. Strong's sister in Peoria and motored to Starved Rock on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz motored to Starved Rock and were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Frantz's cousin, Mr. Remner Oltman of Pontiac.

Miss Nettie Loy of New Bremen, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Miss Frances Loy, at the C. J. Davis home. Miss Nettie taught at Fort Laramie, Ohio, last year and will attend the Ohio State Normal school at Bowling Green this fall.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Robert E. Pettis, attended the funeral of an old friend of the family, William Stow Heath of Chicago on Friday. Mr. Heath was 87 years of age.

Miss Minnie Stryker, who is a secretary for the Eleanor clubs in Chicago and Miss Sarah Stryker, of Evanston, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Irving Stryker, while Mrs. Stryker visited her sister, Mrs. O. S. Fenner, who is critically ill at her home in Fond du Lac, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty and two daughters, Margaret and Wilma, of Chicago, were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Dougherty's sister, Mrs. Fred Labahn of Central avenue.

Miss Nellie Knapp of Wheatfield, Ind., who teaches in the Wilmot school, visited friends and relatives in Deerfield and Libertyville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Segert have returned from Detroit, Mich. where they visited Mrs. Segert's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs.

Mrs. Fred Labahn visited Mrs. Fred Labahn, Sr. of Evanston on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Easton motored to Clinton, Iowa, last week and are contemplating a trip east, this week.

Miss Barbara Huehl is attending Elmhurst college this summer.

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Williams, Mrs. John Stryker, Mrs. Chester Wessling and Mrs. Arthur Merner attended the annual Woman's Missionary convention at Reddick, Ill. on July 7, 8 and 9. Mrs. Williams represented the Mission Band; Mrs. Merner, the Woman's Missionary society and Mrs. Stryker is the Chicago district organizer.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridges and son of Highland Park and Mr. Bridges' brother of Iowa, motored to Long Lake Sunday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. William Neville motored to the Great Lakes and spent the Fourth there. They saw the splendid drills, vaudeville, etc., given by the sailors. They also visited at the home of Mrs. Gardner's niece, Mrs. Glen Bodin of North Chicago.

Mrs. Ernest Appleton of Berwyn, who is at her summer home in Lake Bluff with her son, Eldredge of Terre Haute, Ind., and her daughter, Alice, who attends Lombard college at Galesburg visited at the Reichelt Junior home on Sunday.

The Ladies Aid society met Thursday afternoon in the Sunday school room of St. Paul's church with Mrs. Minnie Juhrend as hostess.

The annual Independence Day picnic of the Evangelical Bungalow church was held Saturday with the Evangelical church of Northfield at the Forest Preserve, two miles south of the Northfield church.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson De Young and daughter, Lois, of Chicago, spent the week-end with the John Stryker family.

The Sewing club of St. Paul's church will meet next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julius Johnson.

Mrs. Chipple of Kansas City, Mo., has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Ambrose Montavon of Everett.

Mr. and Mrs. Saltenberger of West Osterman avenue have as their guest, their daughter and her children of Scranton, Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hagi and Mr. and Mrs. George Bock and families enjoyed a fishing trip in Wisconsin over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers and two children, Jack, Jr., and Dorothy, and their house guest Miss Blanche Hall of Fort Wayne, Ind., motored to Milwaukee on the Fourth to spend the week-end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Romayne Stryker and three children and Miss Edith Stryker of Kenilworth, Miss Minnie Stryker of Chicago and Ellsworth Stryker attended a beach party Friday at Highland Park.

Miss Elizabeth Schilstra and Alvin Meyer were guests at the Herbert Barrett home on Milwaukee avenue near Prairie View on Sunday. The Barretts also entertained twenty guests from Princeton, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner visited a former Deerfield teacher, Miss Annie McCredie of Milburn on Sunday.

R. B. Lowdermilk motored to St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, Michigan and spent Wednesday and Thursday there. He accompanied the Louis Meyers family as far as St. Joe. The Meyers sold their restaurant last week and were on their way to their new home in Michigan.

Miss Susie Easton of Elmhurst spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Eleanor Meyer.

Mrs. Edward Therrien of Highland Park visited Mrs. Fred Meyer on Monday.

Miss Gertrude Johnson is assisting in Knaak's Sandwich stand, at the Filling Station corner.

A large number of Deerfield people attended the Elks celebration of the Fourth at Highland Park, on Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Schilstra, a former Deerfield teacher, who for the past two years has taught in the Tripp school at Prairie View, will graduate from the Music College of Northwestern university at Evanston Friday evening.

Mrs. Chris Petersen returned from the Highland Park hospital on Tuesday.

Miss Eugenia Watier, with a cousin and an aunt have returned from a several weeks trip to Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wenzel and children of Chicago visited Mrs. Wenzel's mother, Mrs. F. Trute of Second street on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rommel have purchased a home in LaGrange.

Mrs. Charles Preston and Mrs. Wayne Gasper of Ravenswood were guests at the Karch home on Thursday.

On Sunday, July 19, Rev. Leinhardt of Chicago will speak on "Missions in Chicago," at St. Paul's Evangelical church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Brierhill have gone to Northern Michigan for several days.

Misses Marie and Clara Dietz of Dundee-Glencoe road are visiting; their brother, Herman Dietz, in Muskegon, Mich.

Miss Laura Karch and Mr. Paul M. Dietz motored to Janesville, Wis. on the Fourth.

Mrs. Porter of Pembroke, Kentucky is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Johnson, of Brierhill.

Mrs. Ann Sherman has returned from Chicago and is staying at the home of her son, Ross Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Trute (Alice Clavey) are living on the Clavey farm on Wilmot road, recently vacated by the Elmer Clavey family, who are now living in their new home on West Deerfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowman and little daughter motored to Bloomington over the week-end to visit Mr. Bowman's mother, Mrs. C. C. Bowman. Mrs. Bowman and little daughter remained to spend the week.

Miss Jane Warner has gone to Sandusky, Ohio, with Mrs. Warner sister, Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Smith and daughter Patricia have been guests at the Warner home this past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and son Willis, who recently purchased the Cashmore house on Chestnut street, are visiting relatives in Michigan.

Mrs. Robert Brown of Chestnut street visited at the home of her sister-in-law in Chicago, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tennerman and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Trute spent the Fourth at Gages Lake.

Louis F. Swift has sold his property, west of Lake Forest, to John J. Fischer of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr., and family have gone to Northern Michigan for a several weeks outing.

Ethel Kreh burned her fingers quite severely with a sparkler on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Goebel of Chicago were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Petersen of Chestnut street. Miss Lillian Wenderling of Techy spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Jens Petersen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tupper of Montana, who resided on the north-west side of the main corners of Deerfield many years ago, visited old friends in Deerfield on Saturday. The Tupperes are visiting Chicago relatives.

Mrs. Krumm and Miss Ruth Ender of Columbus, Ohio returned with Miss Clara Ender and Arthur Ender last week and is visiting at the Ender home. Miss Eva Ender remained in Columbus.

Mrs. August Klemp attended a club meeting at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Dietrick (Francis Klemp) in Chicago on Wednesday.

Mrs. Haggie visited Mrs. Clara Lowell of Jefferson Park, last Monday.

Miss Margaret Kress had as her week-end guest, Miss Lillian Carlson of Chicago.

Mrs. Joseph O'Connor is in the Highland Park hospital. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor, lived just an hour.

Paul Kress spent the week-end in Kllbourm, Wis.

Mrs. Herman Goldberg will be hostess to the Deerfield Bridge club at her home in Highland Park on Wednesday.

Guests at the James O'Connor home on Saturday were Miss Marie Foxen of Lake Forest, Sister Mary Leonetta (Lucy O'Connor) and Sister Mary Clemens of the Immaculate Convent of Chicago.

There were many tournaments on the Fourth at Briarcliff Golf club followed by a dinner and dance.

Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson of Osterman avenue is visiting an aunt, Mrs. Fred Nelson of Chesterton, Ind.

The meeting of the Wilmot Progressive club will be held at the school this summer. During the school year they were held at the various homes.

Little Charles Orsborn of River Forest is visiting at the home of his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark and children will visit friends in LaGrange over the week-end.

Mrs. Walter Vantine attended the funeral of an uncle in Crown Point, Ind., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Franken and two daughters, Misses Petronella and Diana, motored to Kllbourm on Friday and spent the week-end in Wisconsin.

Miss Laurel Stryker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker, who attends Western Union college at Le Mars, Iowa, is acting as a study hall teacher at the summer session of Deerfield-Shields high school.

The Van Dursens of Evanston, have remodeled the old Rockenbach farm house into a most attractive little dwelling. The Van Dursens live next to the Vernon Ridge Country club.

Raymond Moore of Chicago spent Saturday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Merner.

Miss Maida Northup of Chicago visited at the William Plogge home last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto and two children of Beloit, Wis., visited in Deerfield on Sunday in quest of a home for this coming year. Mr. Otto, who has been attending Beloit college this summer, is the new principal of the Deerfield Grammar school.

The C. E. Pipers have returned from a week's visit at Ludington, Mich.

The Edw. Knaak family of Downers Grove spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. T. L. Knaak.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Siljes from and children of Highland Park spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Klemp and children of Highland Park were guests at the John Klemp, Sr., home on Sunday.

James Fritsch and Miss Carrie V. Brown were in charge of the Sunday evening services at the Bungalow church as Rev. Williams was overcome by the heat Sunday afternoon. Both services were patriotic.

Mrs. William Tennerman is employed in Nelson's grocery store.

Miss Frances Biederstadt will give a private piano recital for her young pupils on Wednesday afternoon, July 22, at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey, who are living in the Cooks bungalow on East Osterman avenue, motored to Milwaukee on Sunday. On Saturday they had dinner at the Green Tree Inn at Everett and spent the Fourth, at the Libertyville Independence Day celebration. Mr. Dorsey is one of the owners of the Sewer Co. which is installing the Deerfield sewer system.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson had as her guests on Sunday Misses Bernice and Edith Tucker of Highland Park and their guest, Miss Florence Adelman of Dubuque, Iowa, who is attending the University of Chicago.

The old drug store building on Deerfield avenue has been remodeled and a concrete floor put in it.

Miss Isabel Biederstadt is spending the summer at Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The Deerfield correspondent for the Highland Park Press is Mrs. Robert E. Pettis. Phone or write your Deerfield news to Mrs. Pettis, 178-W.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf attended the Libertyville Young Matrons' club at the home of Mrs. S. C. Kimball of Libertyville on Thursday.

Clifford Whiting of Detroit passed away last Monday of peritonitis, after an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Whiting spent several summers with his uncle William Whiting, when the Whiting's lived in Deerfield.

Mr. William Mueller of Chicago visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. C. Becker, the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Desmond and children, Monica, William and Mary, motored to Michigan to visit relatives over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sokup of Chicago who bought the John Huhn bungalow on Somerset avenue, expect to move to Deerfield this month.

Mr. Henry Scheskie is building another house on West Osterman avenue just west of the bungalow he sold recently to the Jassey family.

Mrs. Clarence Huhn and son, Bobbie, are visiting at the Bosold home in Mannheim, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis of Austin visited at the home of Mrs. William Huhn on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Varney (Lillian Schapp) entertained out-of-town guests on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf visited relatives in Libertyville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Carr and Mrs. Harry Olendorf and two little sons spent the week-end in Milwaukee as the guests of the William Cottrell family.

Dr. Emil C. Becker passed away Monday at his home on Waukegan road, following an illness of several months. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at one o'clock at the Presbyterian church with burial at Forest Home. A full account of Dr. Becker's death will be found on the front page of this paper.

Evangelical Bungalow Church
Rev. R. M. Williams, pastor.
Sunday school—9:45 a. m.
Preaching service—11:00 a. m.
C. E. meeting—7:00 p. m.
Evening service—8:00 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday—8:00 p. m.

Rev. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. John Stryker and Mrs. Arthur Merner left Tuesday morning to attend the Missionary convention at Reddick, Ill.

The Sunday morning service on next Sunday, July 12, will be given over to the delegates for a full report of the activities of this convention.

Sunday evening is the time set for the Silver Medal contest (oratorical). Four ladies of our Missionary society are contesting. Everyone is welcome. A good program is planned and a silver offering will be taken to send to some special branch of missionary work.

The Bungalow choir and orchestra are "vacationing" for the summer months. However there will be music at each service, as a Junior choir of twenty voices, has been organized by Mrs. Chester Wessling.

On July 14 beginning at 10:00 a. m. and continuing throughout the day, a W. C. T. U. Institute will be in progress. The Highland Park branch is uniting with us and every member is urged to be present. Every one is welcome. State officers will be with us. Bring your own lunch with you and coffee will be served at the church.

The Missionary Band, recently re-organized, will meet in the church on the third Tuesday afternoon of this month. Keep the date in mind and send the children.

CHARLES A. PARSONS PASSES AWAY JULY 3

Charles A. Parsons passed away Friday, July 3, after a seven months illness, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Jordan of South Waukegan road. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Jordan home. Interment was at the Town of Maine cemetery in Park Ridge.

Mr. Parsons is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lura Parsons Jordan, of Deerfield, Mrs. Virginia P. Collins of Idaho, and three sons, Roy and Harry of Haggerton, Idaho and Frank of Salt Lake City, Utah, and a sister, Mrs. Hattie P. Christensen of Alabama.

Mr. Parsons was born 73 years ago on the farm at which he died. The property was then owned by his father. Later he moved to Arlington Heights and then to California, returning to Deerfield several years ago.

Obituary

Mrs. Mary A. Conway, wife of Miles J. Conway of Everett, died Friday, July 3 and was buried Monday, July 6, with services at St. Patrick's church at Everett.

Mrs. Conway is survived by her husband and eleven children, Mary,

John, Vincent, Esther, Coletta, Carl, Rose and Rita (twins), Anne, Bennett and Ambrose.

The Conways are old residents of Everett having lived there more than thirty years.

Obituary

George Connolly of Everett passed away July 2 and funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Oakwoods cemetery chapel in Chicago. Mr. Connolly is survived by his wife, Janie Lunham Connolly and a sister and brother, Isabel M. and John W. Connolly.

Mrs. Fred Selig and her daughter, Mrs. Peter Juhrends spent Friday with Mrs. Selig's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Virgil Selig of Highland Park. Philip Rompel is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cashmore and family spent Saturday with Mrs. Cashmore's mother, Mrs. E. Shults of Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hammer of Highland Park spent the week-end with Mrs. Hammer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cashmore and children motored to Kenosha on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McNamara.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and David Marion of Chicago are staying at the Dick Walsh home on West Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. William Selig and three daughters of Chicago are spending the week at the Fred Selig and Peter Juhrend homes.

Mrs. Littman of the Deerfield restaurant sprained her ankle the day they moved into Meyers' restaurant.

Miss Hayes of the Evanston Traffic Superintendent's office visited at the Deerfield telephone office on Tuesday.

Sunday guests at the Peter Juhrend home were Mrs. Welcome and daughter, Margaret, and two sons, Emil and Arthur, of Milwaukee.

Miss Dorothy Lidgerwood has been teaching in the kindergarten of the Rockfield school for the past two weeks. Miss Lidgerwood, who at-

(Continued on page 5, part 2.)

GARNETT'S

STORE NEWS

Special Sale of Rayon Dresses

(Artificial Silk)

High Lustrous Silky Finish $5.95 Colorful Stripes Plaids and Checks

This assortment of Dresses well demonstrates the care we have taken to select just the right sort of apparel for summertime wear. The Rayon of which they are fashioned is of an unusual lustrous finish and bright in coloring.

These Dresses Have Just Arrived and Have Not Been Shown Before As A July Special They Are Under Priced At $5.95

We suggest that you come in to see these attractive dresses, you will want to select two or more, we believe, when you see how becoming they are. Trimmed with self and contrasting materials.

Sizes for Misses 16 and 18
Sizes for Women 36 to 44

Latest Sports Apparel—Balbriggan Knit Golf Suits

These Sport Suits of Balbriggan—a silvertone jersey, are greatly in demand at this time. They can be had here in choice of several different colors and are splendid values at these prices.

Long Sleeve Model Priced at $9.95
Short Sleeve Model Priced at $9.50

