part and Mario Basiola will repeat the successes he won as Sharpless. Ina Bourskaya will appear as Suzuki. Others in the cast are Giordano Paltrinieri, Paolo Ananian, Louis D'Angelo, Max Toft and Philine Falco. Mr. Papi will conduct.

"La Traviata" Friday

The season's first performance of "La Traviata," one of the most appealing of all operas, is scheduled for Friday night with Lucrezia Bori in the title role and Tito Schipa as Alfredo. This is the first time that Mme. Bori has been heard in this part at Ravina, but her success in it elsewhere has won her wide acclaim. Mr. Schipa numbers Alfredo among his best roles and his work on this part will be remembered from season before last. Mario Basiola is to be the elder Germont. Others in the cast are Philine Falco, Giordano Paltrinieri, Louis D'Angelo, Paola Ananian, Max Toft, Louis Derman and Anna Correnti. Mr. Papi will conduct.

"Samson and Delilah"

That majestic and spectacular opera, "Samson and Delilah" will be presented for the first time this season on Saturday night, with Ina Bourskaya and Giovanni Martinelli in the title roles. The work of these artists in their respective parts was one of the features of last season. Mr. Martinelli's voice is admirably adapted to the trying vocal parts of Samson and Miss Bourskaya's exotic beauty gives color and allure to Delilah. Giuseppe Danise likewise has a part in this opera which demands singing of the kind for which he is noted. Others to appear are Paolo Ananian, Leon Rother, Giordano Paltrinieri, Louis Derman and Max Toft. Louis Hasselmans is the conductor.
