Can You Stand a Lawsuit? It's Expensive

Someone has to pay for every accident. Ninety per cent of all automobile accidents fall in the so-called "unavoidable" class, and there is often a difference of opinion as to who was at fault. This leads to court action.

You are probably a careful driver, but the other fellow may not be so careful. And even though you are blameless, the cost of defending yourself in court will pay your insurance premiums for many years, and tiful. Scattered about it singly and in groups are immense old elm and ash trees, relics of the virgin forest, and among them the smoothly cut greensward sweeps up the rolling inclines and through the pleasant hollows making vistas delightful to the eye and a golf course easy to walk over but offering plenty of opportunity for the best skill of the expert player.

All of the new course is covered with a splendid stand of clover and grass and the greens are all built and developing a fine turf. In the new part some of the holes are long ranging from 400 to 560 yards. To appreciate the beauty of the grounds one must see them at this time of the year when they are at their best and those who have not visited the course recently will note that a great deal of good work has been done in the last year. The location is ideal for growing sod and the fairways of the older course are in wonderful condition and kept in first-class shape by the efficient force of men in charge.

Seventeenth Green

One of the beauty spots is the 17th green in the shade of a giant old elm that probably was a good-sized tree when the Declaration of Independence was signed, and the view from this green over the green sweep of the entire expanse of the fine course is worth going miles to see. The 18th tee is under another huge elm, and the 18th hole is near the homestead site. The first and 10th tees and the ninth and 18th greens are near the old homestead.

Improvements are being made from year to year. Sand pits and other hazards will be added and such other features added as may be necessary to growth and improvement of the course.

Fees Are Reasonable

The East Park District Golf course is a municipal course for the use of the people of the district. It is administered by the commissioners of the East Park district. Fees are very reasonable. The annual dues for a man and wife are $20; for individuals, $15. Or greens fees are 50 cents on week days and one dollar on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays for residents of the district and one dollar on week days and two dollars on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays for non-residents.

No Commissioners

The commissioners of the East Park district are Everett L. Millard, president; Edward M. Laing, L. R. Rigdon, Fred D. Silber, Milton J. Hardacre. E. M. Laing also is president of the Golf club and chairman of its golf committee. Credit for the laying out of the grounds and their splendid arrangement to take advantage of the natural topography of the land is due Stuart Gardner, well known professional of the Exmoor club who has aided the Park District commissioners in every possible way in the construction and improvement of the course.

"Even There Where Merchants Most Do Congregate"

The subjects mostly discussed by conventions of retailers, is the Questionable Merchant, who is selling questionable merchandise, and using questionable methods in effecting his sales.

Misrepresentation is never condoned by good merchants, and our town is pretty free of those who take advantage.

Good merchants strive for evermore
