GREAT PROGRAM AT RAVINIA NEXT WEEK

Florence Macbeth will be the Gilda. Mario Chamlee will find splendid opportunity as the Duke and Virgilio Lazzari will bring his superb lower register into play as Sparafucello. Others in the cast are Ada Paggi, Louis D'Angelo, Anna Correnti, Philine Falco, Paolo Ananiani, Giordano Paltrinieri, Virgilio Coscia and Virgilia Grassi. Gennaro Papi will conduct.

North Shore Theater Guild and Northwestern University. All children under twelve years of age are admitted free to these concerts and the reserved seats are free for everyone.

Thursday night, "Il Trovatore" which year after year holds its place as one of the most tuneful of all the operas, will be given with Rosa Raisa, Giovanni Martinelli and Ina Bour-skaya forming a trio unequalled in their respective parts. A change in cast will bring Giacomo Rimini to the role of Count Di Luna, while Virgilio Lazzari will be heard again as Ferrando. Philine Falco and Giordano Paltrinieri are likewise in the cast and Gennaro Papi will conduct.

Friday night Massenet's "Manon" is to be given and again Lucretia Bori is to sing the title role with Tito Schipa opposite as Chevalier Des Grieux. The work of these artists in this dramatic opera of love and faithlessness is fairly breath-taking, since each is the acknowledged world leader in their respective roles. Leon Rother will be heard as the elder Des Grieux while others in the cast are Desire Defrere, Louis D'Angelo, Giordano Paltrinieri, Margery Maxwell, Philine Falco, Ada Paggi, Paolo Ananiani and Virgilia Grassi. Louis Hasselmanns will conduct.

When "Fedora" is given its first performance of the season on Saturday night, Mme. Rosa Raisa will sing the title role of this work for the first time in her career. The part is one which is replete in dramatic action and in which the singing demands are heavy. Mme. Raisa is admirably equipped in every way to do full justice to the role. Giovanni Martinelli will appear as Count Boris and in this part the dramatic tenor will find an admirable outlet for his artistry. It is a role that requires not only superb vocalization, offering as it does many arias of large dimensions, but it also makes imperative demands for acting, and there is no other performer of singer and actor on the operatic stage than is Mr. Martinelli. With Raisa and Martinelli in the principal roles of this colorful opera, which is redolent of Russia and France, the opera wise are convinced that the Ravinia performance on Saturday night will be the greatest ever presented on any stage.
