Hessler Holds Opponents to Six Hits and Strikes Out Eleven Men

(By A. L. Fell) With Hessler pitching perfect ball the Elks had no trouble beating Antioch 8-1. The Elks hit the ball in pinches and played good ball in the field, Antioch could not do a thing with Hessler. He was never in trouble, and had Antioch eating out of his hand. No one got a base on balls, and he struck out 11 men.

In the third inning the Elks knocked out Strabbe the Antioch star pitcher. Hessler, first man up, walked; George Glader singled and Hessler stopped at second. They both advanced on Little's sacrifice and Hessler scored on Werner's sacrifice fly. With two down Greisburn doubled and scored Glader. He went to third on F. Glader's single. They both scored on Duffy's double. M. Rudolph ended the rally by striking out.

Gerkin, who played third instead of Geo. Rudolph, scored a run in the fourth. He walked, advanced to second when Hessler drew his second pass and got to third on G. Glader's sacrifice and scored on Peterson's wild pitch

In the lucky seventh the Elks put the game on ice. Hits by Little, Glader and Duffy mingled by an error scored three more runs.

The only run scored by Antioch came in the eighth when Hessler eased up. Moore doubled and scored on Peterson's hit.

AUNT JULIA'S ROCKING CHAIR

"If you haven't got a ladder," said Aunt Julia, "and the jam is on the top shelf, it doesn't do much good if mother says you may have some. And that's the way with a lot of women. They can vote and do many things that women couldn't do when I was a girl. But by the time they've finished the old routine of housework they haven't got the time or the ambition even to dress up and take in a movie. The jam's there but they need a ladder.

And the laundry is just the ladder they need. One of our many family services will free them from the long. hard work of washing, and leave them many more hours for the "jam" that Aunt Julia speaks of. If you're not yet using our ladder, just call for it today.
