

William Wrigley, Jr.

Famous Merchant and Sportsman

LIKE the conservative trend of the Herald and Examiner. Its news assertions generally prove accurate in spite of the high pressure speed with which news facts must be obtained and presented.

"It is a vigorous and enterprising newspaper. I especially like Mr. Brisbane's comment and the business digest by Mr. Hinman. The sport pages are always bright and interesting.

"The Herald and Examiner is a newspaper worthy of Chicago and of which Chicago may well be proud."

PART 3

VOLUME XV

DEER

Boy Scout

The Deerfield boys home Saturday evening two profitable weeks at the West Suburban Camp of America, at their camp, Lake, Wis. This is the first of the camp, and the Deerfield, Lyons, LaGrange, Western Springs, Berwyn, Hollywood and Congress camps up the council.

Through the first of the camp, E. Piper, Jr., with Palmer, the camp director, the Deerfield boys, were allowed to camp for part of August.

School was conducted all of the scouts advanced. The one who made the first class was Wallace Newcomer.

Gordon Kress made records in swimming, saving tests, and is to be called a life guard.

In the field event which the boys participated in water sports, the boys, which was made by Deerfield boys, made a record in broad jump.

Stieckler in running, most of the points, received prizes of cream and cake. They also won five out of ten inspections.

There were the camp. The discipline and the meals were suitable for young campers with a variety of vegetables. No coffee was in the diet.

gained in weight at the camp inspection—some gained as much as five pounds in two weeks.

For a better camp, certain standards of discipline that result in the campers are liable to gain awards were made to the camper was made to be done because they and not because one is rewarded for doing them.

were generous in helping win the green spade to their belts. This award is given to the one who does the most patrol. The white shirt was given to the one who took in the morning every day.

The tent winning tent inspection have learned to fold fully. A stamp for the fellow who is good willing worker, who is by the others, yet not and does more than the entire camp period honor.

The boys are looking for another outing next year.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Leeb have returned to Elmhurst, Ill.

Mrs. A. Salem, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reka Koebell to her home in Gary, Misses Amanda Clara and Barbara Huehl have returned to their home in Elmhurst, N. Y., where they are attending the campers of Camp Kenjoe.

Dunkirk, E. L. T. S. Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.

Miss Huehl, on a pleasant trip through Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, visiting various places of interest, including Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and the Oakwood Institute, Cincinnati.