THE SUNSET VALLEY GOLF CLUB OPENED

NEW 9 HOLES ARE READY

Mayor Samuel M. Hastings Drives First Ball at the Opening Yesterday Afternoon

The new nine holes of the Sunset Valley Golf club (formerly Park District Golf club) was officially opened yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at one-thirty o'clock when Mayor Samuel M. Hastings drove the first ball down the fairway.

Since 1921 the municipal course as it has been called, has been nine holes. Construction on the other nine has been under way however, for over a year.

President Edward M. Laing of the club and his officers have worked hard to bring this about and they deserve a great deal of credit for the splendid condition of the course on the opening day.

The course lies at the east edge of the Skokie valley and its new name (The Sunset Valley Golf club) is very appropriate.

Each hole also has received a new and fitting name: No. 1, Let's Go; No. 2, Orchard Hook; 3, Davy's Locker; 4, The Gap; 5, Westward Ho!; 6, Highball; 7, Green Mound; 8, Center-view; 9, Long Tom; 10, Easy Money; 11, Shorty; 12, Long Elbow; 13, West.
