POLICE FIND OWNER OF STOLEN SILVER

The local police have located the owner of the stolen silverware found on the man arrested last week on suspicion. The goods were taken from the home of Ed Nevins, 641 Central avenue. Mrs. Nevins was on the second floor of the residence when the silverware was stolen, and remembered having heard someone on the first floor. At the time she thought it was the seaman. Earl Johnston, the man arrested, who claimed to be from Ontario, has been bound over to the grand jury under $2,500 bond. His companion, who was too intoxicated to aid in the robbery, was given 40 days in the county jail.
